On October 28, 2019, a telephonic hearing was held in the above-styled bankruptcy case to consider the Motion to Compel Panthera Enterprises, LLC to Timely Perform All Obligations Under the Subcontract filed by Panthera Training, LLC ("Motion to Compel"). Upon consideration of the representations of counsel and for reasons fully stated on the record, the Court does hereby

ORDER that the parties may engage in discovery consistent with the provisions of Bankruptcy Rule 9014(c). Given the short timeframe prior to the next hearing, the parties should engage in a cooperative effort to provide requested information in a timely manner and not saddle the other party with overly burdensome requests. It is further

ORDERED that Panthera Training, LLC ("Panthera Training") shall file an answer to the Complaint filed in Panthera Enterprises, LLC v. Panthera Training, LLC, A.P. No. 2:19-ap-51, by November 7, 2019. The answer should include any counterclaims or requests for preliminary injunctive relief related to the Motion to Compel. The Debtor shall file its answer to any counterclaims or requests for injunctive relief by November 20, 2019. It is further

ORDERED that the Debtor may file a request for a preliminary injunction related to its real property by November 7, 2019. Panthera Training shall file a response to the request for preliminary injunction by November 20, 2019. It is further

ORDERED that each of the parties shall file a prehearing memorandum by November 18, 2019. The memorandum should include a list of witnesses and exhibits, statement of facts, the parties' legal positions and authority that they will be relying on at the hearing. The parties may electronically file their exhibits with their prehearing memorandum. It is further

ORDERED that court will convene an evidentiary hearing to consider preliminary relief of all of these matters on November 21, 2019 at 9:30 a.m. in the L. Edward Friend II Bankruptcy Courtroom, located on the third floor of the U.S. Courthouse, 1125 Chapline Street, Wheeling, West Virginia. It is further ORDERED that the parties shall present the court with two additional copies of each original document that is offered as evidence at the hearing.
