Section 2. Paragraph (a) of subsection (1) of section 440.12, Florida Statutes, is amended to read:

440.12 Time for commencement and limits on weekly rate of compensation.—

(1) Compensation is not allowed for the first 7 days of the disability, except for benefits provided under s. 440.13. However, if the injury results in more than 21 days of disability, compensation is allowed from the commencement of the disability.

(a) All weekly compensation payments, except for the first payment, must be paid by check or, if authorized by the employee, paid on a prepaid card pursuant to paragraph (b), ~~or~~ deposited directly into the employee's account at a financial institution as defined in s. 655.005, or transmitted to the employee's account with a money transmitter licensed under part II of chapter 560.

Section 3. Paragraph (a) of subsection (1) and paragraph (a) of subsection (6) of section 440.20, Florida Statutes, are amended to read:

440.20 Time for payment of compensation and medical bills; penalties for late payment.—

(1)(a) Unless the carrier denies compensability or entitlement to benefits, the carrier shall pay compensation directly to the employee as required by ss. 440.14, 440.15, and 440.16, in accordance with those sections. Upon receipt of the employee's authorization as provided for in s. 440.12(1)(a), the carrier's obligation to pay compensation directly to the employee is satisfied when the carrier directly deposits, by electronic transfer or other means, compensation into the employee's account at a financial institution as defined in s. 655.005 or onto a prepaid card in accordance with s. 440.12(1) or transmits the employee's compensation to the employee's account with a money transmitter licensed under part II of chapter 560. Compensation by direct deposit, ~~or~~ through the use of a prepaid card, or through transmission is considered paid on the date the funds become available for withdrawal by the employee.

(6)(a) If any installment of compensation for death or dependency benefits, or compensation for disability benefits payable without an award is not paid within 7 days after it becomes due, as provided in subsection (2), subsection (3), or subsection (4), there shall be added to such unpaid installment a penalty of an amount equal to 20 percent of the unpaid installment, which shall be paid at the same time as, but in addition to, such installment of compensation. This penalty shall not apply for late payments resulting from conditions over which the employer or carrier had no control. When any installment of compensation payable without an award has not been paid within 7 days after it became due and the claimant concludes the prosecution of the claim before a judge of compensation claims without having specifically claimed additional compensation in the nature of a penalty under this section, the claimant will be deemed to have acknowledged that, owing to conditions over which the employer or carrier had no control, such installment could not be paid within the period prescribed for payment and to have waived the right to claim such penalty. However, during the course of a hearing, the judge of compensation claims shall on her or his own motion raise the question of whether such penalty should be awarded or excused. The department may assess without a hearing the penalty against either the employer or the carrier, depending upon who was at fault in causing the delay. The insurance policy cannot provide that this sum will be paid by the carrier if the department or the judge of compensation claims determines that the penalty should be paid by the employer rather than the carrier. Any additional installment of compensation paid by the carrier pursuant to this section shall be paid directly to the employee by check or, if authorized by the employee, by direct deposit into the employee's account at a financial institution or by transmission to the employee's account with a money transmitter licensed under part II of chapter 560.

5. A statement that the notice is given in order to perfect the right to pursue the civil remedy authorized by this section.

(d) The authorized insurer that is the recipient of a notice filed pursuant to this section shall report to the department on the disposition of the alleged violation.

Such policy or certificate may be issued for terms longer than 90 days, but, other than a policy or certificate providing coverage for air ambulatory services only, each policy or certificate must be limited to coverage for travel or use of accommodations of no longer than 90 days~~. The license may be issued only to an individual or business entity that has filed with the department an application for a license in a form and manner prescribed by the department.

1. A limited lines travel insurance producer, as defined in s. 647.02, shall be licensed to sell, solicit, or negotiate travel insurance through a licensed insurer.

2. A person may not act as a limited lines travel insurance producer or travel retailer unless properly licensed or registered, respectively. As used in this paragraph, the term "travel retailer" means a business entity that:

a. Makes, arranges, or offers planned travel.

b. May, under subparagraph 3., offer and disseminate travel insurance as a service to its customers on behalf of and under the direction of a limited lines travel insurance

The limited lines travel insurance producer shall submit the register to the department upon reasonable request. The limited lines travel insurance producer shall also certify that the travel retailer register complies with 18 U.S.C. s. 1033. The grounds for the suspension and revocation and the penalties applicable to resident insurance producers under this section apply to the limited lines travel insurance producers and travel retailers.

c. The limited lines travel insurance producer has designated one of its employees as the designated responsible producer. The designated responsible producer, who must be a licensed insurance producer, is responsible for compliance with the travel insurance laws and regulations applicable to the limited lines travel insurance producer and its registrants. Section 10. Paragraph (a) of subsection (2) of section 627.062, Florida Statutes, is amended to read:

627.062 Rate standards.—

(2) As to all such classes of insurance:

(a) Insurers or rating organizations shall establish and use rates, rating schedules, or rating manuals that allow the insurer a reasonable rate of return on the classes of insurance written in this state. A copy of rates, rating schedules, rating manuals, premium credits or discount schedules, and surcharge schedules, and changes thereto, must be filed with the office under one of the following procedures:

1. If the filing is made at least 90 days before the proposed effective date and is not implemented during the office's review of the filing and any proceeding and judicial review, such filing is considered a "file and use" filing. In such case, the office shall finalize its review by issuance of a notice of intent to approve or a notice of intent to disapprove within 90 days after receipt of the filing. If the 90-day period ends on a weekend or a holiday under s. 110.117(1)(a)-(i), it must be extended until the conclusion of the next business day. The notice of intent to approve and the notice of intent to disapprove constitute agency action for purposes of the Administrative Procedure Act. Requests for supporting information, requests for mathematical or mechanical corrections, or notification to the insurer by the office of its preliminary findings does not toll the 90-day period during any such proceedings and subsequent judicial review. The rate shall be deemed approved if the office does not issue a notice of intent to approve or a notice of intent to disapprove within 90 days after receipt of the filing.

2. If the filing is not made in accordance with subparagraph 1., such filing must be made as soon as practicable, but within 30 days after the effective date, and is considered a "use and file" filing. An insurer making a "use and file" filing is potentially subject to an order by the office to return to policyholders those portions of rates found to be excessive, as provided in paragraph (h).

3. For all property insurance filings made or submitted after January 25, 2007, but before May 1, 2012, an insurer seeking a rate that is greater than the rate most recently approved by the office shall make a "file and use" filing. For purposes of this subparagraph, motor vehicle collision and comprehensive coverages are not considered property coverages.

The provisions of this subsection do not apply to workers' compensation, employer's liability insurance, and motor vehicle insurance.

Section 11. Paragraph (a) of subsection (1) of section

627.0651, Florida Statutes, is amended to read:

627.0651 Making and use of rates for motor vehicle insurance.—

(1) Insurers shall establish and use rates, rating schedules, or rating manuals to allow the insurer a reasonable rate of return on motor vehicle insurance written in this state. A copy of rates, rating schedules, and rating manuals, and changes therein, shall be filed with the office under one of the following procedures:

(a) If the filing is made at least 60 days before the proposed effective date and the filing is not implemented during the office's review of the filing and any proceeding and judicial review, such filing shall be considered a "file and use" filing. In such case, the office shall initiate proceedings to disapprove the rate and so notify the insurer or shall finalize its review within 60 days after receipt of the filing. If the 60-day period ends on a weekend or a holiday under s. 110.117(1)(a)-(i), it must be extended until the conclusion of the next business day. Notification to the insurer by the office of its preliminary findings shall toll the 60-day period during any such proceedings and subsequent judicial review. The rate shall be deemed approved if the office does not issue notice to the insurer of its preliminary findings within 60 days after the filing.

Section 12. Subsection (2) of section 627.410, Florida

Statutes, is amended to read:

627.410 Filing, approval of forms.—

(2) Every such filing must be made at least 30 days in advance of any such use or delivery. At the expiration of the 30 days, the form filed will be deemed approved unless prior thereto it has been affirmatively approved or disapproved by order of the office. The approval of such form by the office constitutes a waiver of any unexpired portion of such waiting period. The office may extend the period within which it may affirmatively approve or disapprove such form by up to 15 days by giving notice of such extension before expiration of the initial 30-day period. If the initial 30-day period or the 15-day extension period ends on a weekend or a holiday under s. 110.117(1)(a)-(i), the review period must be extended until the conclusion of the next business day. At the expiration of such extended period, and in the absence of prior affirmative approval or disapproval, such form shall be deemed approved.

Section 13. Subsection (2) of section 627.714, Florida Statutes, is amended to read:

627.714 Residential condominium unit owner coverage; loss assessment coverage required.—

(2) The maximum amount of any unit owner's loss assessment coverage that can be assessed for any loss shall be an amount equal to that unit owner's loss assessment coverage limit in effect 1 day before the date of the occurrence that gave rise to the loss. Such coverage is applicable to any loss assessment regardless of the date of the assessment by the association. Any changes to the limits of a unit owner's coverage for loss assessments made on or after the day before the date of the occurrence are not applicable to such loss.

Section 14. Subsection (4) of section 627.7295, Florida Statutes, is amended to read:

627.7295 Motor vehicle insurance contracts.—

(4) The insurer may cancel the policy in accordance with this code except that, notwithstanding s. 627.728, an insurer may not cancel a new policy or binder during the first 30 ~~60~~ days immediately following the effective date of the policy or binder for nonpayment of premium unless the reason for the cancellation is the issuance of a check for the premium that is dishonored for any reason or any other type of premium payment that was subsequently determined to be rejected or invalid.

Section 19. Section 647.04, Florida Statutes, is created to read:

647.04 Travel protection plans.—A travel protection plan may be offered for one price for the combined features that the travel protection plan offers in this state if the travel protection plan meets all of the following requirements:

(1) The travel protection plan clearly discloses to the consumer, at or before the time of purchase, that it includes travel insurance, travel assistance services, and cancellation fee waivers, as applicable, and provides information and an opportunity, at or before the time of purchase, for the consumer to obtain additional information regarding the features and pricing of each.

(2) The fulfillment materials:

(a) Describe and delineate the travel insurance, travel assistance services, and cancellation fee waivers in the travel protection plan.

(b) Include the travel insurance disclosures required in this chapter, the contact information for persons providing travel assistance services, and cancellation fee waivers, as applicable.

Section 20. Section 647.05, Florida Statutes, is created to read:

647.05 Sales practices.—

(1)(a) All documents provided to a consumer before the purchase of travel insurance, including, but not limited to, sales materials, advertising materials, and marketing materials, must be consistent with the travel insurance policy, including, but not limited to, forms, endorsements, policies, rate filings, and certificates of insurance.

(b) For travel insurance policies or certificates that contain preexisting condition exclusions, information and an opportunity to learn more about the preexisting condition exclusions must be provided any time before the purchase. Information on the exclusions and the opportunity to learn more about these exclusions must be included in the coverage's fulfillment materials.

(c) The fulfillment materials and the information described in s. 626.321(1)(c)3.a. must be provided to a policyholder or certificateholder as soon as practicable after the purchase of a travel protection plan. Unless the insured has started a covered trip or filed a claim under the travel insurance coverage, the policyholder or certificateholder may cancel a policy or certificate for a full refund of the travel protection plan price from the date of purchase of a travel protection plan until at least:

1. Fifteen days after the date of delivery of the travel protection plan's fulfillment materials by postal mail; or

2. Ten days after the date of delivery of the travel protection plan's fulfillment materials by means other than postal mail.

For the purposes of this paragraph, the term "delivery" means handing fulfillment materials to the policyholder or certificateholder or sending fulfillment materials by postal mail or electronic means to the policyholder or certificateholder.

(d) An insurer shall disclose in the policy documentation and fulfillment materials whether the travel insurance is primary or secondary to other applicable coverage.

(e) If travel insurance is marketed directly to a consumer through an insurer's website or by others through an aggregator site, it is not an unfair trade practice or other violation of law if the following requirements are met:

1. The web page provides an accurate summary or short description of the coverage.

2. The consumer has access to the full provisions of the policy through electronic means.

(2) A person offering, soliciting, or negotiating travel insurance or travel protection plans on an individual or group basis may not do so by using a negative or opt-out option that would require a consumer to take an affirmative action to deselect coverage, such as unchecking a box on an electronic form, when the consumer purchases a trip.

(3) If a consumer's destination jurisdiction requires insurance coverage, it is not an unfair trade practice to require that the consumer choose between the following options as a condition of purchasing a trip or travel package:

(a) Purchasing the coverage required by the destination jurisdiction through the travel retailer, as defined s. 626.321(1)(c)2., or limited lines travel insurance producer supplying the trip or travel package; or

(b) Agreeing to obtain and provide proof of coverage that meets the destination jurisdiction's requirements before departure.

(4)(a) A person offering travel insurance to residents of this state is subject to part IX of chapter 626, the Unfair

Insurance Trade Practices Act, except as otherwise provided in this chapter. If a conflict arises between this chapter and the Unfair Insurance Trade Practices Act regarding the sale and marketing of travel insurance and travel protection plans, the provisions of this chapter shall control.

(b) A person commits an unfair insurance trade practice under the Unfair Insurance Trade Practices Act if the person:

1. Offers or sells a travel insurance policy that could never result in payment of any claims for any insured under the policy; or

2. Markets blanket travel insurance coverage as free.

Section 21. Section 647.06, Florida Statutes, is created to read:

647.06 Travel administrators.—

(1) Notwithstanding any other provision of the Florida Insurance Code, a person may not act or represent himself or herself as a travel administrator in this state unless the person:

(a) Is a licensed and appointed property and casualty insurance producer in this state for activities authorized under that producer license;

(b) Is a licensed insurance agency, appointed as a managing general agent in this state; or

(c) Holds a valid third-party administrator license in this state.

(2) A travel administrator and its employees are exempt from the licensing requirements of part VI of chapter 626 for the travel insurance it administers.

(3) An insurer is responsible for ensuring that a travel administrator administering travel insurance underwritten by the insurer:

(a) Acts in accordance with this chapter.

(b) Maintains all books and records that are relevant to the insurer and makes these books and records available to the department upon request.

Section 22. Section 647.07, Florida Statutes, is created to read:

647.07 Travel insurance policy.—

(1) Notwithstanding any other provision of the Florida Insurance Code, travel insurance shall be classified and filed for purposes of rates and forms under the inland marine line of insurance; however, travel insurance that provides coverage for sickness, accident, disability, or death occurring during travel, either exclusively or in conjunction with related coverages of emergency evacuation or repatriation of remains, or incidental limited property and casualty benefits, such as baggage or trip cancellation, may be classified and filed for purposes of rates and forms under either the accident and health line of insurance or the inland marine line of insurance.

(2) Travel insurance may be in the form of an individual, group, or blanket policy. Group or blanket policies are classified as commercial inland marine insurance under s. 627.021(2)(d). Travel insurance policies not issued to a commercial entity and primarily used for personal, family, or household purposes are considered personal inland marine insurance and shall not be subject to s. 627.062. Sections of policies or endorsements for travel insurance which are considered personal inland marine insurance consisting of travel assistance services or cancellation fee waivers are not subject to s. 627.410.

(3) Travel insurance programs may be developed and provided based on travel protection plans designed for individual or identified marketing or distribution channels.
