Resume of The Ferraro Law Firm, P.A. and Natalia M. Salas, Esq.

As a leading plaintiffs' firms for mass torts and serious injury cases, The Ferraro Law Firm has the resources and expertise to argue and win even the most challenging cases, securing billions of dollars in recovery for its clients. With offices in Miami, Florida, Washington, D.C., and an affiliated office, Kelley & Ferraro, located in Cleveland, Ohio, the Firm has earned its place as one of the top five law firms in the United State in the areas of product liability, asbestos, and environmental toxic tort lawsuits. The Firms have the highest rating (AV) from Martindale-Hubbell, the leading rating service for law firms.

Aside from product liability, The Ferraro Law Firm has continuously expanded into other fields, some of which involve working alongside the federal government to recover money owed to the U.S. taxpayer. Nearly a decade ago The Ferraro Law Firm began pursuing tax whistleblower claims via the IRS Whistleblower Program and currently have over $100 billion in active IRS whistleblower submissions, making The Ferraro Law Firm the largest law firm in this field.

Recent Jury Verdicts and Results

The Ferraro Law Firm has over three decades of experience in mass tort litigation. We also have a strong track record in the Florida District Courts of Appeal and Florida Supreme Court. NATALIA MARIA SALAS

Education: Natalia M. Salas received her Bachelor of Arts in Public Policy and Spanish, and Policy Journalism and Media Studies Certificate, cum laude, from Duke University, and her Juris Doctorate, magna cum laude, from the University of Miami School of Law as a Dean's Merit Scholar recipient. While in law school, she served as a member of the Moot Court Board and the University of Miami Law Review and worked in the Securities Department of Baker & McKenzie LLP and a judicial intern for the Constitutional Court (U.S. Supreme Court equivalent) in Madrid, Spain. Ms. Salas also participated in study abroad programs in Oxford, England and Florence, Italy, and was selected for Duke in the Arts & Media in New York, where she studied dance at Tisch University and worked as an intern at NBC Universal, Inc.

Experience: Natalia M. Salas is a Partner at The Ferraro Law Firm and is responsible for growing the Firm's class action and MDL practice, which spans all levels of state and federal courts nationwide. She also provides the Firm's trial lawyers with support on novel issues, as one of the Firm's most persuasive writers and thorough researchers. Recent notable cases include a racial discrimination lawsuit against McDonald's on behalf of 77 former Black McDonald's franchisees and a putative class action on behalf of all current Black McDonald's franchisees for violation of 42 U.S.C. § 1981, among other things, key briefing in a qui tam tax action valued in the billions currently pending in New York, and related tortious interference and declaratory judgment cases pending in the Southern Districts of Florida and New York, respectively.

Prior to joining The Ferraro Law Firm, Ms. Salas served as Assistant General Counsel for the University of Miami, providing legal counsel to a wide variety of departments within the University and its health system, including the privacy and data protection office, athletics, and research. Ms. Salas oversaw data privacy and regulatory compliance investigations, FDA approvals and patent disputes, all intellectual property matters, and corporate finance and tax issues. She was responsible for drafting and negotiating complex, high-stakes agreements, including mergers & acquisitions, exclusive license agreements, and joint venture agreements. She also oversaw litigation and interfaced with opposing and outside counsel for preventive functions.

From 2012 to 2018, Ms. Salas was Senior Counsel at one of the largest multi-national defense firms in the country (Am Law 50). In that capacity, she represented clients in high-stakes corporate litigation, with a particular emphasis on intellectual property, contractual and partnership disputes, federal securities law claims, and high-stakes litigation. Her clients included Fortune 50 corporations, financial institutions, large online platforms, hospital systems, brokerage firms, developers, and manufacturers.

Ms. Salas served as the dedicated MDL judicial law clerk to The Honorable James Lawrence King in the United States District Court for the Southern District of Florida. As the MDL clerk, Ms. Salas researched and analyzed contested arbitration, class action waiver, motion to dismiss, Rule 23, and settlement issues directly pertinent to this MDL. Ms. Salas was responsible for written and oral case recommendations, drafting proposed opinions for publication, and overseeing the management of an MDL of over 80 cases involving over 30 defendants. During her clerkship, Ms. Salas oversaw all cases pending in Key West, Florida, including a complex admiralty case involving financial fraud and several Fair Labor Standards Act (FLSA) collective actions. Ms. Salas also expanded her role to include a complex, securities class action that went to trial, taking primary responsibility for advising on all pre- and post-trial motions.

Ms. Salas began her career in the litigation boutique, Coffey Burlington, P.A., as one of two associates, gaining invaluable firsthand courtroom and trial experience, taking and defending 20 depositions in her first year, successfully second-chairing a jury trial by her third year, briefing her own appeals, and arguing a winning $26 million summary judgment motion on behalf of a financial institution by her fourth year.
