The Washington post is going to run a very bad story about me tomorrow. I did everything I could to get out of the limelight and politics and start a new life. The last 2.5 years from my divorce to the death of Jon to everyone in town stabbing me relentlessly have just been unbearably awful. I can't breathe I hurt so bad. I thought this was my way out. I thought this new carrear and opportunity I could start fresh and actually do well. I have worked so hard and harder than I have at anything in my life. Our masks and PPE were seized in China for Maryland and Alabama. We paid Alabama back in full the next day. We have been able to source Maryland's order in full and they get their ventilators next week and masks in 2 weeks. I have been lied to up and down in China on when we were getting everything and product that was supposed to have shipped and wasn't. I feel like such a fool and now the world is going to see it and they are going to hate me all over again and everyone is gonna to love it. I don't know what I'm going to do with my life and for my kids. I'm so scared for my future. I threw everything away and took this chance to have it blow up in my face. I have tried so hard to do the right things. To be a better person. A better human being and treat people right and work hard and be a good example. It is going to be so embarrassing for my children. They could have had such a good easy life and now this. I have nothing. I don't know what I'm going to do now. I have to find a way to financially support them and give them a life they were on track to have. I don't know what to do. I was so sure of my life and then Jon died and everything from that day on has been a nightmare. Please pray for me

I'm putting the kids to bed or would pick up. Sorry friend

Ok. Call me when you are done. Let's talk through this. There is always hope, brother.

I don't know about that anymore.

Our contract with Maryland was to fill it by June 30. It states in the contract. Henry has completely lied and let us down. We are filling ALL of Maryland with a new supplier it in 2 weeks. But they don't care. It's all lies. We have had over 110 emails between us about this. It's so gut wrenching

We have a partnership with coach mike singletary and the attorney generals assoc "was" going to feature us next week as best practices in their monthly letter to ALL the ag' sand Fortune 500 companies. We haven't done anything wrong and went out of the way to make everything right. I don't know what to do next if I can even do anything tomorrow

That stuff will come and go. I don't care about your business, I care about you. Let's chat when you get a minute. Rachael & I are praying for you.

I'm trying to get some sleep between my kids. I didn't know where else to go at this point. The only thing pure and good in my life right now is here. I'm sorry I didn't and can't call but sleeping between them now and something finally doesn't hurt. I promise to call tomorrow

Ok. Call. Any. Time.

Seriously. Any time.

This is going to suck and then you'll be through it. Just keep moving. You can't fix everything all at once, just focus on what's most important and do that the best you can.

You'll get through this better on the other side— after some rebuilding.
