Washington State Senate
Business, Financial Services & Trade Committee

Senator Mark Mullet, Chair
Senator Bob Hasegawa, Vice Chair
Senator Perry Dozier, Ranking Member

September 21, 2021 10:00 a.m.
TUESDAY

Work Session:

1. Assessing how emergency rulemaking by the Office of the Insurance Commissioner to ban the use of credit scores has affected insurance premiums.
2. Public comment by Washington state residents that have been affected by the emergency order eliminating the use of credit scores as a criterion for determining premiums. (Remote testimony.)

Possible other business.

See https://app.leg.wa.gov/CSIRemote/Senate for testimony options.

There may be some confusion as to how to state your position while signing up to testify for the Senate Business, Financial Services, and Trade Committee work session. Please note that your position may be considered as follows:

- If you are favorable to the emergency order, please sign-in as "Pro"
- If you are not favorable to the emergency order, please sign-in as "Con"
- If you have a public comment that is neither for nor against the emergency order, please sign-in as "Other"

If you believe your position was inaccurately stated, please contact the BFST Committee Assistant at Noah.Powelson@leg.wa.gov who will ensure your position is accurately represented for the record.
