Representative Tomkow offered the following:

Amendment

Remove lines 50-109 and insert:

(3) A veterinarian practicing veterinary telemedicine may order, prescribe, or make available medicinal drugs or drugs defined in chapter 465.

(4) A veterinarian practicing veterinary telemedicine may order, prescribe, or make available controlled substances as defined in chapter 893, except as provided in subsection (5), if the veterinarian has previously performed an in-person physical examination of the patient or made medically appropriate and timely visits to the premises where the animal is kept.

(5) A veterinarian practicing veterinary telemedicine may not use telemedicine to prescribe controlled substances listed in Schedule II of s. 893.03 unless the controlled substance is prescribed for the treatment of a terminal patient that is transferred to the veterinarian practicing telemedicine for hospice services by a veterinarian who has previously performed an in-person physical examination of the patient or made medically appropriate and timely visits to the premises where the animal is kept and the veterinarian practicing telemedicine has reviewed the patient's medical records.

(6) A veterinarian must hold a current license to practice veterinary medicine in this state in order to practice veterinary telemedicine. The practice of veterinary medicine is deemed to occur at the premises where the patient is located at the time the veterinarian practices veterinary telemedicine.

(7) The board has jurisdiction over a veterinarian practicing veterinary telemedicine in this state, regardless of where the veterinarian's physical office is located. The practice of veterinary telemedicine in accordance with this section is not a standard of care violation, and a veterinarian may not be disciplined solely for practicing veterinary telemedicine.

Section 3. Paragraph (a) of subsection (5) of section 474.203, Florida Statutes, is amended to read:

474.203 Exemptions.—This chapter does not apply to:

(5)(a) Any person, or the person's regular employee, administering to the ills or injuries of her or his own animals, including, but not limited to, castration, spaying, and dehorning of herd animals, unless title is transferred or employment provided for the purpose of circumventing this law. This exemption does not apply to any person licensed as a veterinarian in another state or foreign jurisdiction and practicing temporarily in this state. However, except as provided in s. 828.30, only a veterinarian may immunize or treat an animal for diseases that are communicable to humans and that are of public health significance.

For the purposes of chapters 465 and 893, persons exempt pursuant to subsection (1), subsection (2), or subsection (4) are deemed to be duly licensed practitioners authorized by the laws of this state to prescribe drugs or medicinal supplies.

Section 4. Paragraph (y) of subsection (1) of section 474.214, Florida Statutes, is amended to read:

474.214 Disciplinary proceedings.—

(1) The following acts shall constitute grounds for which the disciplinary actions in subsection (2) may be taken:

(y) Using the privilege of ordering, prescribing, or making available medicinal drugs or drugs as defined in chapter 465, or controlled substances as defined in chapter 893, for use other than for the specific treatment of animal patients for which there is a documented veterinarian/client/patient relationship. ~~Pursuant thereto,~~ The veterinarian shall:

1. Have sufficient knowledge of the animal to initiate at least a general or preliminary diagnosis of the medical condition of the animal, which means that the veterinarian is personally acquainted with the keeping and caring of the animal and has recently performed an examination of the animal or group of animals either in person, or by the use of veterinary telemedicine in compliance with s. 474.2021, ~~seen the animal~~ or has made medically appropriate and timely visits to the premises where the animal is kept.
