Committee/Subcommittee hearing bill: Regulatory Reform & Economic Development Subcommittee

Representative Lopez, V. offered the following:

Amendment (with title amendment)

Between lines 292 and 293, insert:

Section 1. Paragraph (aa) of subsection (6) of section 627.351, Florida Statutes, is amended to read:

627.351 Insurance risk apportionment plans.—

(6) CITIZENS PROPERTY INSURANCE CORPORATION.—

(aa) Except as otherwise provided in this paragraph, the corporation shall require the securing and maintaining of flood insurance as a condition of coverage of a personal lines residential risk. The insured or applicant must execute a form approved by the office affirming that flood insurance is not provided by the corporation and that if flood insurance is not secured by the applicant or insured from an insurer other than the corporation and in addition to coverage by the corporation, the risk will not be eligible for coverage by the corporation. The corporation may deny coverage of a personal lines residential risk to an applicant or insured who refuses to secure and maintain flood insurance. The requirement to purchase flood insurance shall be implemented as follows:

1. Except as provided in subparagraphs 2. and 3., all personal lines residential policyholders must have flood coverage in place for policies effective on or after:

a. January 1, 2024, for property valued at $600,000 or more.

b. January 1, 2025, for property valued at $500,000 or more.

c. January 1, 2026, for property valued at $400,000 or more.

d. January 1, 2027, for all other personal lines residential property insured by the corporation.

2. All personal lines residential policyholders whose property insured by the corporation is located within the special flood hazard area defined by the Federal Emergency Management Agency must have flood coverage in place:

a. At the time of initial policy issuance for all new personal lines residential policies issued by the corporation on or after April 1, 2023.

b. By the time of the policy renewal for all personal lines residential policies renewing on or after July 1, 2023.

3. Policyholders ~~whose policies issued by the corporation do not provide coverage for the peril of wind~~ are not required to purchase flood insurance as a condition for maintaining their policies issued by ~~with~~ the corporation, if the policyholder's policy issued by the corporation:

a. Does not provide coverage for the peril of wind.

b. Provides coverage under a condominium unit owners or condominium tenant form and the policyholder's unit is covered under a master flood policy issued to someone other than the policyholder.

c. Provides coverage under a condominium unit owners or condominium tenant form and the policyholder resides in a condominium unit with occupiable space that is not less than 40 feet above the grade plane, as defined in the Florida Building Code. A unit located on the fifth floor above the grade plane or higher is deemed to be not less than 40 feet above the grade plane, as defined in the Florida Building Code. A unit owner or a condominium association may submit a certification from an engineer licensed under chapter 471, a surveyor and mapper licensed under chapter 472, or an architect licensed under chapter 481 that details which units in the condominium association are not less than 40 feet above the grade plane, as defined in the Florida Building Code, and the corporation may rely on such certification.

The flood insurance required under this paragraph must meet, at a minimum, the coverage available from the National Flood Insurance Program or the requirements of subparagraphs s. 627.715(1)(a)1., 2., and 3.

T I T L E A M E N D M E N T

Remove line 35 and insert:
provisions to changes made by the act; amending s. 627.351; revising requirements relating to the purchase of flood insurance as a condition for maintaining certain policies issued by the Citizens Property Insurance Corporation; amending ss.
