Pomp

@APompliano

There is no free market.

There is only a manipulated market that is built to enrich hedge funds.

The "capitalists" on Wall Street are being exposed as a bunch of cry babies who aren't actually that smart.

If they were so good, why not compete in the free market??

This is why we need #DeFi and #DEX and other #decentralised solutions like #crypto, the system is too centralised and in the controlled by the hands of the few. The shift in the system is happening before our very eyes.

Exactly PTD rules are total bullshit. Also, why TF can't I trade on $ that was held over night but I can day trade to infinity?

The market is rigged in their favor to make the rich richer. They also need no risk management because they're used to being bailed out. Everyone is finally realizing it. Tried to tell my friends new to investing about this shit and they thought I was a conspiracy theorist.

Manipulated markets

If they're smart, why play on a level playing field when they don't need too. No one said they have any integrity.

James Meece  @JamesNeilMeece · Jan 29, 2021

I would much rather have a Fair Market than a Free Market. How about you?
