I'm working on class action in canada, I'll post it when it's finalized , congress report is taking retail investors side, one California that canada might be automatically in but it's Grey area so I'm preparing one anyways

Joe Bautista robinhood trader got his 30k back in abritiation because agreement they have with robinhood, he's the first, with questrade it will have to be lawsuit in court , I personally think we still have chance, it's so obvious it was illegal what they did it's just who will get the blame.
