

In the United States Court of Federal Claims

No. 24-365

(Filed: March 13, 2024)

AIRBOSS DEFENSE GROUP, LLC,

Plaintiff,

v.

UNITED STATES,

Defendant.

ORDER

On March 7, 2024, plaintiff filed a motion requesting the entry of the court’s standard protective order. ECF No. 7. Plaintiff represents that “the issuance of a Protective Order is necessary to safeguard the confidentiality of competition-sensitive or otherwise protectable information likely to be disclosed orally or in writing during the course of this litigation” and that plaintiff “is likely to suffer serious competitive harm if such information is not adequately safeguarded.” Id. at 1.

For good cause shown, plaintiff’s motion for a protective order is GRANTED. The court will separately enter a protective order.

It is so ORDERED.
