

In the United States Court of Federal Claims

No. 24-365

(Filed: March 25, 2024)

AIRBOSS DEFENSE GROUP, LLC,

Plaintiff,

v.

UNITED STATES,

Defendant,

NEW YORK EMBROIDERY STUDIO, INC.

Defendant-Intervenor.

ORDER

Pending before the court is the parties' joint status report and motion to amend the scheduling order issued by this court on March 22, 2024. ECF No. 23. Plaintiff and defendant jointly propose an amended schedule, and represent that counsel for defendant-intervenor was apprised of the proposed schedule and "voiced no objection." Id. at 5-6 n.5.

For good cause shown, the parties' motion to amend the scheduling order governing the proceedings in this case is GRANTED. Therefore, the court now adopts the following schedule of proceedings:

Event	Date ¹
Amended complaint	March 25, 2024
Administrative record	April 3, 2024
Plaintiff's motion for judgment on the administrative record	April 24, 2024

¹ Two of the proposed deadlines – for filing of the amended complaint and of plaintiff's response and reply in support of its motion for judgment – fell on non-court days. As such, the court has understood these proposed deadlines by reference to their closest court day and set those deadlines accordingly.

Defendant and defendant-intervenor's cross-motion(s) for judgment on the administrative record, motion(s) to dismiss, and/or response(s) to plaintiff's motion for judgment	May 15, 2024
---	--------------

Plaintiff's response and reply in support of its motion for judgment	May 28, 2024
--	--------------

Defendant and defendant-intervenor's reply in support of their cross-motion(s)	June 7, 2024
--	--------------

Oral argument	TBD
---------------	-----

It is so ORDERED.
