Federal Preemption of State Action

- Budget reconciliation bill would ban enforcement of any law or regulation “limiting, restricting, or otherwise regulating artificial intelligence models, artificial intelligence systems, or automated decision systems entered into interstate commerce”
- Effective for 10 years
- Attorney General Nick Brown joined 40 state attorney generals in opposing the ban
- A bipartisan group of over 260 state legislators signed a letter opposing the ban
- The ban usurps state authority to protect its residents
