Defendant(s): Division of Unemployment Insurance, JOE BARELA JEFF FITZGERALD Etc.	FILED UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT DENVER, COLORADO 10:58 am, Jul 22, 2025 JEFFREY P. COLWELL, CLERK ▲ COURT USE ONLY ▲
Joshua Abrams, Pro Se abramslive@gmail.com 720-910-4829 1881 E 112th Pl, Northglenn Colorado 80233	Case Number: 1:24-cv-03390-RMR Division: Courtroom
NOTICE OF NON-RESPONSE AND REQUEST FOR RULING

Plaintiff Joshua Abrams, proceeding pro se, respectfully files this Notice to inform the Court that, as of the date of this filing, no response or opposition has been submitted by Defendants regarding Plaintiff's Emergency Motion for Status Conference filed and docketed on July 2 (as Document 44). Plaintiff called the clerk today July 22nd, and according to the Clerk's Office, no further activity has occurred on the docket since that filing.

Pursuant to D.C.COLO.LCivR 7.1(d), any response to a motion must be filed within 14 days unless otherwise ordered. That time has now expired without any filing by Defendants. Under D.C.COLO.LCivR 7.1(e), the Court may deem a motion confessed when a party fails to respond in the prescribed time. Plaintiff therefore requests that the motion be ruled upon as unopposed and ripe for immediate disposition.

In addition, Plaintiff reiterates that this matter qualifies as an emergency within the meaning of D.C.COLO.LCivR 7.1(h), based on the imminent risk of irreparable harm, including unlawful eviction, financial destitution, and deprivation of subsistence all injuries which, under well-established precedent, cannot be remedied post hoc. The Court is empowered under Fed. R. Civ. P. 16(a) to convene a pretrial conference at its discretion to expedite case resolution and manage issues of urgency. Plaintiff's motion explicitly requests such a conference to resolve the backlog of pending emergency motions, clarify the procedural posture of this matter, and prevent ongoing constitutional injury.

As this motion is grounded in public interest claims supported by unrebutted legal and factual assertions some of which are corroborated by independent investigative findings such as the 2025 Colorado UI audit and similar litigation (Keener v. Polis and Barela, D. Colo. 2021) Plaintiff urges the Court to give this matter immediate consideration.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court:

1. Acknowledge that Defendants have failed to file any opposition within the required period;
2. Treat the Emergency Motion for Status Conference and supported arguments as uncontested under D.C.COLO.LCivR 7.1(e);
3. Issue a ruling without further delay or, alternatively, schedule a status conference pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 16(a) to address the pending emergency filings and coordinate judicial response to ongoing harm.

Respectfully submitted,

Joshua Abrams
