

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
Northern District of Alabama

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

v.

Case Number 5:23-CR-00087-MHH-HNJ

JOHN DAVID SCOGGINS (2)
Defendant.

AMENDED JUDGMENT AND COMMITMENT ORDER
ON REVOCATION OF PROBATION
(For Offenses Committed On or After November 1, 1987)

The defendant, JOHN DAVID SCOGGINS, was represented by Jerry S. Barclay.

On May 1, 2024, the Court sentenced Mr. Scoggins to probation for a period of 60 months, (Doc. 44). Mr. Scoggins has violated the terms of probation. Therefore, the Court REVOKES Mr. Scoggins's probation.

As pronounced on August 22, 2024, Mr. Scoggins is committed to the custody of United States Bureau of Prisons for a term of TIME SERVED as of the date a bed becomes available at an inpatient facility approved by Mr. Scoggins's supervising officer. The Court imposes 36 months of supervised release.

*The Court removes the following special condition of supervised release:

You will be monitored for a period of 12 months by location monitoring technology, TO BEGIN ON Tuesday, April 30, 2024, under the administrative supervision of the probation officer, and you must comply with all requirements of the location monitoring program. You must pay for the cost of monitoring unless the probation officer determines you do not have the ability to do so. During the period of monitoring, you are restricted to your residence at all times except for employment; education; religious services; medical, substance abuse or mental health treatment; attorney visits; court appearances or other court-ordered obligations; and other activities pre-approved by the probation officer (Home Detention). The form of location monitoring technology used to monitor you will be at the discretion of the probation officer.

*The Court adds the following special condition of supervised release:

You must submit your person, property, house, residence, vehicle, office, papers, computers (as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 1030(e)(1)), and other electronic communications or data storage devices or media, to a search conducted by the probation officer. Failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation of supervision. You must warn any other occupants that the premises may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition. The probation officer may conduct a search pursuant to this condition only when reasonable suspicion exists that you have violated a condition of supervision and the areas to be searched contain evidence of this violation. Any search must be conducted in a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner.

All other standard and special conditions in the original judgment remain in effect.
