All Comments:

Debra Margraf, AZ CHAPTER NATIONAL ELECTRICAL CONTRACTORS ASSOCIATION: This bill adds value to those who have completed an apprenticeship in the trades. This bill does not create any additional regulations. We support the amendments.; Joseph Myers, Self: Holding state certification as a contractor is a good thing. In some cases, it may not always be necessary; thus, I suggest an amendment that includes language, e.g. from "Shall" to "May."; C D Tavares, Self: Would be acceptable if SHALL were changed to MAY.; Brandon LaBorde, Self: If you push this forward, amend it to say "May" not "shall". No additional bureaucracy.; Mathia Hassett, Self: Please amend by changing SHALL to MAY.; Gretchen Petersen, Self: Suggest an amendment of SHALL to MAY.; John Hassett, Self: We would not be against this if the words shall register were changed to may register; Mary Jamsa, Self: I support this bill.; Michael Mote, Self: This bill should be amended to state "MAY" instead of "SHALL". Without that change, it is simply more government overreach.; Kathryn Atwood, Self: The wording on this should be MAY (NOT SHALL); Gary Zimmerman, Self: Adds more red tape/bureaucracy we don't need. At least should be amended from SHALL to MAY.

HB2146, mobile homes; cooling; prohibition

HB2146: mobile homes; cooling; prohibition
Sponsor: Representative Cook, LD 7
Committee on Commerce

Overview

Specifies a mobile home park owner or operator cannot prohibit the installation of reasonably necessary cooling methods.

History

A.R.S. § 33-1452 directs the landlord of a mobile home park to create written rules or regulations concerning the tenant's use and occupancy of the premises to promote the convenience, safety or welfare of tenants, preserve property or upgrade the quality of the mobile home park. Tenants who bring a mobile home into the park or who purchase an existing mobile home must comply with all statements of policy and rules or regulations, including those pertaining to the size, condition and appearance of the mobile home. Statute outlines prohibitions for a mobile home park owner or operator pertaining to the tenant's use and occupancy of the premises.

Provisions

1. Prevents a mobile home park owner or operator from prohibiting a tenant from installing reasonably necessary cooling methods to reduce energy costs and prevent heat-related illness and death. (Sec. 1)
2. Makes a technical change. (Sec. 1)

HB 2040: event online ticket sales
Sponsor: Representative Cook, LD 7
Committee on Commerce

Overview

Creates laws prohibiting a person from using or creating a bot to purchase tickets for an online ticket sale.

History

Pursuant to A.R.S § 13-3718, it is unlawful for a person to sell an entertainment event ticket, which was purchased with the intent to resale, for a price that exceeds the face value, including taxes and other charges, while being within 200 feet of entry to the venue where the event is being held or the venues parking area. Additionally, it is unlawful to alter a ticket's printed price without the original vendor's written consent. Persons found in violation are subject to a petty offense.

Provisions

1. Prohibits a person from using or creating a bot to:
   a) purchase tickets in excess of the listed limit for an online ticket sale;
   b) use multiple internet protocol addresses, multiple purchaser accounts or multiple email addresses to purchase tickets in excess of the posted limit for an online ticket sale;
   c) circumvent or disable an electronic queue, waiting period, presale code or other sales volume limitation system associated with online ticket sale;
   d) circumvent or disable a security measure, access control system or other control or measure that is used to facilitate authorized entry to an event. (Sec 1)
2. Permits the Attorney General (AG) to investigate a claim that a person violated laws relating to event online ticket sales. (Sec 1)
3. Stipulates the AG may bring action to restrain or enjoin the person who is violating event online ticket sales laws. (Sec. 1)
4. Allows the AG to seek restitution and petition a district court for the assessment of a civil penalty. (Sec 1)
5. Specifies a person who knowingly violates event online ticket sales laws is liable for a civil penalty of up to $10,000 for each violation. (Sec 1)
6. Specifies each ticket transaction in which a ticket is acquired to be sold in violation of event online ticket sales laws constitutes a separate violation for the purpose of assessing a civil penalty. (Sec 1)

HB 2194: ticket resales; restrictions
Sponsor: Representative Cook, LD 7
Committee on Commerce

Overview

Establishes laws outlining restrictions and prohibitions relating to ticket resales.

History

Pursuant to A.R.S § 13-3718, it is unlawful for a person to sell an entertainment event ticket, which was purchased with the intent to resale, for a price that exceeds the face value, including taxes and other charges, while being within 200 feet of entry to the venue where the event is being held or the venues parking area. Additionally, it is unlawful to alter a ticket's printed price without the original vendor's written consent. Persons found in violation are subject to a petty offense.

Provisions

1. Prohibits a reseller, a secondary ticket exchange, or their affiliates from:
   a) reselling more than one copy of the same ticket to an athletic contest or live entertainment event;
   b) employing a person to wait in line to purchase tickets for the purpose of reselling the ticket if such practice is prohibited;
   c) reselling a ticket without first informing the purchaser of the seating location or the general admission area to which the ticket corresponds; or
   d) reselling a ticket or advertising a ticket for resale, unless:
      i. the ticket is in the possession or constructive possession of the reseller; or
      ii. the reselling has a written contract with the rights holder to obtain the ticket. (Sec 1)
2. Prohibits specified persons from reselling a ticket prior to being made available to the public. (Sec. 1)

HB 2090: apprenticeship programs; completion; ROC filings
Sponsor: Representative Hendrix, LD 14
Committee on Commerce

Overview

Requires a person to file a certificate of completion relating to apprenticeship programs with the Registrar of Contractors (ROC).

History

According to the Arizona Department of Labor, apprenticeship programs provide apprentices occupational related skills including on-the-job training. Programs must be registered with the Arizona Apprenticeship Office.

The Arizona Apprenticeship Advisory Committee coordinates, advices and recommends approval of procedures for the registration of apprenticeship programs and establishes quality thresholds of employers and employees in a sound, voluntary system of apprenticeship for men and women in skilled trades and occupations. Currently, there are over 40 approved apprenticeship programs offered through the Department of Labor.

Provisions

1. Directs a person who completes a construction trade apprenticeship program approved by the U.S. Department of Labor or the Arizona Department of Economic Security to file a certificate of completion with the ROC. (Sec 1)
2. Requires the ROC to maintain the certificates of completion. (Sec 1)
