Senator & Tony,

There truly is no easy way to say this, or good time to say this, but as of today, this will be my last day working for you and Gula Graham. Over the last 14 days I have built another business outside politics and will be focusing my full attention there. It has been an unbelievable experience building Gula Graham and Prime Advocacy alongside Jon, only to suffer through his tragic death in 2018. I am sorry you are receiving this news via email, but I know better than anyone how word travels faster than light in Washington and I did not want you to hear this second hand. I hope to have the chance to personally reach out to you over the coming weeks when things slow down. In the meantime, I have cc'd Tom, Claire & Hannah, who will be fielding all questions as it relates to Gula Graham as it phases toward closure. Attached is a spreadsheet with multiple tabs outlining every possible detail so you do not miss anything moving forward. All questions of the firm need to be directed toward the three of them. Tom will be sending final expense and commission invoices at the appropriate time.

It has been an honor to work for you. Going forward, I recommend ONLY one person to manage your fundraising: Aaron Poe at apoe@grandvc.com. My experience in the field indicates that he is the only one who can who can help you maximize your fundraising ability. His work ethic, fundraising success and team he brings to help is incredible

After this e-mail, I will be unreachable. I wish you the best of luck in politics and life.

Mike
