ORDER

This matter comes before the Court on ROBERT S. STEWART JR's ("Defendant") Motion to Amend the Judgment and Conviction Order ("Motion"). Dkt. 19. Defendant seeks to amend his sentence of 21-months imprisonment by allowing him to serve the final 12 months of his sentence in a Bureau of Prisons ("BOP") Residential Re-Entry Center. Considering procedural limitations contained in the Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 35(a) and the deference courts give to the Bureau of Prisons with respect to the Residential Re-Entry Program, it is not within this Court's purview to alter the conditions of Defendant's sentence. Defendant should petition the BOP directly. That said, a transcript of Defendant's sentencing hearing may be ordered by Defendant if Defendant would find this helpful in petitioning the BOP. Accordingly, it is hereby ORDERED that Defendant's Motion is DENIED.

It is SO ORDERED.
