JUDGMENT AND PROBATION/COMMITMENT ORDER

MONTH	DAY	YEAR
Oct	11	2022

In the presence of the attorney for the government, the defendant appeared in person on this date.

COUNSEL Amy Fan, CJA
(Name of Counsel)

VERDICT [X] GUILTY, and the court being satisfied that there is a factual basis for the plea. [ ] NOLO CONTENDERE [ ] NOT GUILTY

FINDING There being a verdict of GUILTY, defendant has been convicted as charged of the offense(s) of:

Conspiracy to Distribute or Possess with Intent to Distribute a Controlled Substance in violation of 21 U.S.C. § 846, 21 U.S.C. § 841(b)(1)(C), as charged in Count One of the Indictment.

JUDGMENT AND PROB/ COMM ORDER The Court asked whether there was any reason why judgment should not be pronounced. Because no sufficient cause to the contrary was shown, or appeared to the Court, the Court adjudged the defendant guilty as charged and convicted and ordered that: Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that the defendant is hereby committed to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons to be imprisoned for a term of 110 months as to Count One of the Indictment.

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be placed on supervised release for a term of 5 years under the following terms and conditions:

1. The defendant shall comply with the rules and regulations of the United States Probation & Pretrial Services Office and Second Amended General Order 20-04.

2. The defendant shall refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. The defendant shall submit to one drug test within 15 days of release from custody and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter, not to exceed eight tests per month, as directed by the Probation Officer. With no objection from the Government, the Court modifies this condition as reflected on the record to permit the Probation Office to exercise its discretion and if it determines the condition is not useful, it is permitted to cease drug testing as to this defendant without further order of the Court.

3. During the period of community supervision, the defendant shall pay the special assessment in accordance with this judgment's orders pertaining to such payment.

4. When not employed or excused by the Probation Officer for schooling, training, or other acceptable reasons, the defendant shall perform 20 hours of community service per week as directed by the Probation & Pretrial Services Office.

5. The defendant shall not obtain or possess any driver's license, Social Security number, birth certificate, passport or any other form of identification in any name, other than the defendant's true legal name, nor shall the defendant use, any name other than the defendant's true legal name without the prior written approval of the Probation Officer.

6. The defendant shall cooperate in the collection of a DNA sample from the defendant.

7. The defendant shall submit the defendant's person, property, house, residence, vehicle, papers, computers, cell phones, other electronic communications or data storage devices or media, email accounts, social media accounts, cloud storage accounts, or other areas under the defendant's control, to a search conducted by a United States Probation Officer or law enforcement officer. Failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation. The defendant shall warn any other occupants that the premises may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition. Any search pursuant to this condition will be conducted at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner upon reasonable suspicion that the defendant has violated a condition of his supervision and that the areas to be searched contain evidence of this violation.

8. The defendant shall not associate with anyone known to the defendant to be a member of the Hoover Crip Gang and others known to the defendant to be participants in the Hoover Crip Gang's criminal activities, with the exception of the defendant's family members. The defendant may not wear, display, use or possess any gang insignias, emblems, badges, buttons, caps, hats, jackets, shoes, or any other clothing that defendant knows evidence affiliation with the Hoover Crip Gang, and may not display any signs or gestures that defendant knows evidence affiliation with the Hoover Crip Gang.

9. As directed by the Probation Officer, the defendant shall not be present in any area known to the defendant to be a location where members of the Hoover Crip Gang meet or assemble.

The Court stands on its oral pronouncement of a 5-year term of supervised release, concluding that the term is authorized by law. United States v. Ross, 338 F.3d 1054, 1057 (9th Cir. 2003).

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $100, which is due immediately. Any unpaid balance shall be due during the period of imprisonment, at the rate of not less than $25 per quarter, and pursuant to the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program.

Pursuant to Guideline Section 5E1.2(a), all fines are waived as the Court finds that the defendant has established that he is unable to pay and is not likely to become able to pay any fine.

Defendant informed of his right to appeal.

The Court dismisses forefeiture allegation one as to Defendant Willie Alsha Hill pursuant to the Government's Notice Regarding Forfeiture at Dkt. No. 376.

The Court recommends the defendant be placed in a Bureau of Prisons facility located in Southern California.

The Court recommends to the Bureau of Prisons the defendant be designated to a BOP facility that offers the 500-hour Residential Drug Abuse Program (RDAP) and further recommends the defendant be allowed to participate in the RDAP.

In addition to the special conditions of supervision imposed above, it is hereby ordered that the Standard Conditions of Probation and Supervised Release within this judgment be imposed. The Court may change the conditions of supervision, reduce or extend the period of supervision, and at any time during the supervision period or within the maximum period permitted by law, may issue a warrant and revoke supervision for a violation occurring during the supervision period.
