ADVISORY OF PARTY AND PARTICIPANT RIGHTS – CHIPS PERMANENCY

QUESTIONS ABOUT YOUR RIGHTS should be addressed to your attorney or to the Court at any hearing.

WHO IS A PARTY

You are a party to this case pursuant to Rule 32 of the Rules of Juvenile Protection Procedure if you are one of the following:

- The child's parent, including any parent who is not a legal custodian and any parent who is an adjudicated or presumed father.
- In the case of an Indian child, the child's Indian custodian or child's Indian tribe.
- The person or social services agency who filed the petition.
- The social services agency when someone else has filed a termination of parental rights or other permanency petition.
- The child's guardian ad litem.
- A relative to whom the social services agency proposes to transfer the child's permanent legal and physical custody.
- Any person who intervenes as a party pursuant to Rule 34 or who is joined as a party pursuant to Rule 35.
- Any other person who is determined by the court to be important to a resolution that is in the best interests of the child.

YOUR RIGHTS AS A PARTY ARE AS FOLLOWS:

- To receive a copy of the Petition regarding this Juvenile Protection Matter
- To receive notice of all hearings (only if you keep the court administrator informed of your address)
- To attend all hearings, unless excluded by the Court.
- To receive copies of your social services file and other records.
- To bring motions before the court and to present evidence.
- To participate in settlement discussions and agreements.
- To subpoena witnesses to testify on your behalf.
- To make argument in support of or against the petition.
- To examine and cross-examine witnesses.
- To request review of the referee's findings and order, if your case is heard by a referee.
- To ask the court to review its disposition upon a showing of a substantial change of circumstances or that the previous disposition was inappropriate.
- To bring post-trial motions and to appeal from final orders of the court.
- To be represented by an attorney. If you are the child, the child's parent, or the child's legal custodian, the Court may appoint an attorney to represent you if the Court determines that you qualify financially and that the appointment is appropriate. If you are the parent or Indian custodian of an Indian child, the court is required to appoint an attorney to represent you if you qualify financially. The Court cannot appoint an attorney to represent you if the only allegation is that the child is a truant, unless out-of-home placement is being considered by the court. The Court may order a parent or legal custodian to reimburse some or all of the attorney's fees.

- If you are the child's foster parent, preadoptive parent, relative providing care for the child, or a relative to whom the social services agency proposes to transfer permanent legal and physical custody of the child, you have a right to offer information at each hearing. Any other person may request an opportunity to be heard, but the court is not required to grant your request.

WHO IS A PARTICIPANT

You are a participant to this case pursuant to Rule 33 of the Rules of Juvenile Protection Procedure if you are one of the following:

- The child who is the subject of petition.
- The child's grandparent if the child has lived with you at any time during the two years before the filing of the petition.
- The child's relative or other person providing care for the child.
- The child's foster parent or a person proposed as a long-term foster parent.
- The child's spouse.
- The guardian ad litem for the child's legal custodian.
- Any other person who is determined by the court to be important to a resolution that is in the best interests of the child.

YOUR RIGHTS AS A PARTICIPANT ARE AS FOLLOWS:

- To receive a copy of the Petition regarding this Juvenile Protection Matter.
- To receive notice of all hearings (only if you keep the court administrator informed of your address).
- To attend all hearings, unless excluded by the Court.
- To be represented by an attorney. If you are the child, the child's parent, or the child's legal custodian, the Court may appoint an attorney to represent you if the Court determines that you qualify financially and that the appointment is appropriate. If you are the parent or Indian custodian of an Indian child, the court is required to appoint an attorney to represent you if you qualify financially. The Court cannot appoint an attorney to represent you if the only allegation is that the child is a truant, unless out-of-home placement is being considered by the court. The Court may order a parent or legal custodian to reimburse some or all of the attorney's fees.
- If you are the child's foster parent, preadoptive parent, relative providing care for the child, or a relative to whom the social services agency proposes to transfer permanent legal and physical custody of the child, you have a right to offer information at each hearing. Any other person may request an opportunity to be heard, but the court is not required to grant your request.
- To automatically become a party to the case if you are the child who is the subject of this proceeding, or the child's parent, or the child's grandparent and the child has lived with you at any time during the two years prior to the filing of the petition in this matter. All other persons may ask the Court's permission to become a party to the case. Ask the court administrator for the correct form to intervene as a party.

All parental rights of Parent 6, _____ (name), to the following children: _____
_____ (names of children) should be terminated.

12. Statutory Grounds for Termination of Parental Rights. All rights of the parents named above to the children named above should be terminated based upon the following Minnesota Statute grounds.

Check all that apply:

- ☐ 260C.301, subd. 1(a): With the written consent of a parent who for good cause desires to terminate parental rights.
- ☒ 260C.301, subd. 1(b)(1): The parent has abandoned the child.
- ☐ 260C.301, subd. 1(b)(2): The parent has substantially, continuously, or repeatedly refused or neglected to comply with the duties imposed upon that parent by the parent and child relationship, including but not limited to providing the child with necessary food, clothing, shelter, education, and other care and control necessary for the child's physical, mental, or emotional health and development, if the parent is physically and financially able, and either reasonable efforts by the social services agency have failed to correct the conditions that formed the basis of the petition or reasonable efforts would be futile and therefore unreasonable.
- ☐ 260C.301, subd. 1(b)(3): A parent has been ordered to contribute to the support of the child or financially aid in the child's birth and has continuously failed to do so without good cause. This clause shall not be construed to state a grounds for termination of parental rights of a non-custodial parent if that parent has not been ordered to or cannot financially contribute to the support of the child or aid in the child's birth.

- ☐ 260C.301, subd. 1(b)(4): A parent is palpably unfit to be a party to the parent and child relationship because of a consistent pattern of specific conduct before the child or of specific conditions directly relating to the parent and child relationship either of which are determined by the court to be of a duration or nature that renders the parent unable, for the reasonably foreseeable future, to care appropriately for the ongoing physical, mental, or emotional needs of the child. It is presumed that a parent is palpably unfit to be a party to the parent and child relationship upon a showing that the parent's parental rights to one or more other children were involuntarily terminated.
- ☐ 260C.301, subd. 1(b)(5): Following the child's placement out of the home, reasonable efforts, under the direction of the court, have failed to correct the conditions leading to the child's placement. It is presumed that reasonable efforts under this clause have failed upon a showing that:
 - ☐ (i) A child has resided out of the parental home under court order for a cumulative period of 12 months within the preceding 22 months. In the case of a child under age eight at the time the petition was filed alleging the child to be in need of protection or services, the presumption arises when the child has resided out of the parental home under court order for six months unless the parent has maintained regular contact with the child and the parent is complying with the case plan.
 - ☐ (ii) The court has approved a case plan required under Section 260C.212 and filed with the court under Section 260C.178.
 - ☐ (iii) Conditions leading to the out-of-home placement have not been corrected. It is presumed that conditions leading to a child's out-of-home placement have not been corrected upon a showing that the parent or parents have not substantially complied with the court's orders and a reasonable case plan.
 - ☐ (iv) Reasonable efforts have been made by the social services agency to rehabilitate the parent and reunite the family, and:
 - ☐ (A) the parent has been diagnosed as chemically dependent by a professional certified to make the diagnosis.
 - ☐ (B) the parent has been required by a case plan to participate in a chemical dependency treatment program.

- ☐ (C) the treatment programs offered to the parent were culturally, linguistically, and clinically appropriate.
- ☐ (D) the parent has either failed two or more times to successfully complete a treatment program or has refused at two or more separate meetings with a caseworker to participate in a treatment program.
- ☐ (E) the parent continues to abuse chemicals.
- ☐ 260C.301, subd. 1(b)(6): A child has experienced egregious harm in the parent's care which is of a nature, duration, or chronicity that indicates a lack of regard for the child's well-being, such that a reasonable person would believe it contrary to the best interest of the child or of any child to be in the parent's care.
- ☐ 260C.301, subd. 1(b)(7): In the case of a child born to a mother who was not married to the child's father when the child was conceived nor when the child was born the person is not entitled to notice of an adoption hearing under Section 259.49 and the person has not registered with the fathers' adoption registry under Section 259.52.
- ☐ 260C.301, subd. 1(b)(8): The child is neglected and in foster care.
- ☐ 260C.301, subd. 1(b)(9): The parent has been convicted of a crime listed in Section 260.012, paragraph (b), clauses (1) to (3).
- ☐ 260C.301, subd. 3: The child has been subjected to egregious harm or is a sibling of another child of the parent who was subjected to egregious harm or is an abandoned infant.
