AFTER RECESS

The recess having expired, the House was called to order by the Speaker pro tempore (Ms. MCCOLLUM) at 10 a.m.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, the Reverend Patrick J. Conroy, offered the following prayer:

Lord our God, thank You for giving us another day.

Please bless the Members of this people's House as they address the funding issues facing our Nation. While Americans still face the double challenge of a threatening coronavirus and struggling economy, may their leadership in legislation and modelling necessary compromise lift the spirits of so many citizens looking for hope in these perilous times.

Continue to bless the men and women who attend to those who are sick—the number continuing to grow throughout our country. Keep our healthcare professionals safe and inspire those who labor to find treatments and cures for this dangerous virus.

May all that is done be for Your greater honor and glory.

Amen.

Mr. THOMPSON of Pennsylvania led the Pledge of Allegiance as follows:

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair will entertain up to 15 requests for 1-minute speeches on each side of the aisle.

REMEMBERING JOSE ORNELAS

(Mr. COX of California asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. COX of California. Madam Speaker, I rise today in honor of Jose Ornelas, who passed away on July 19. Jose was a friend and a dedicated public servant, serving as a council member in San Joaquin, California.

The son of farmworkers, Mr. Ornelas earned many academic degrees and was a successful small business owner.

But his passion was community service, public service. Always a fierce advocate for rural communities, Jose believed deeply in the attainability of the American Dream for all Central Valley families.

He spearheaded the group Nueva Alianza, an organization composed of farmworker families dedicated to fighting for workers' rights and environmental justice.

He was also a founding member of the influential Central Valley Leadership Roundtable that advocates for expanded opportunity in rural communities throughout the Valley.

As a mentor to many young people, Jose was a youth soccer coach. He promoted civic engagement and tirelessly worked to expand access to clean drinking water for our families.

He is survived by his parents, siblings, his lovely wife, Nadia, and their six children: Jose Jr., Gustavo, Angel, Oscar, Giselle, and Shayla. He will always be remembered for his generous spirit and always as a steadfast champion for rural farmworker families.

SUPPORTING THE PAYCHECK PROTECTION FOR PRODUCERS ACT

(Mr. THOMPSON of Pennsylvania asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. THOMPSON of Pennsylvania. Madam Speaker, I rise today to share my support for H.R. 7175, the Paycheck Protection for Producers Act. I was pleased to cosponsor this legislation with Representatives JOYCE, KIND, and BRINDISI.

The bill is simple. It would expand access to the Paycheck Protection Program for farmers and ranchers, folks who are no strangers to economic hardship.

Many farmers and ranchers, particularly our dairy farmers, have been deemed ineligible to receive PPP loans due to negative net incomes. With this legislation, producers filing a schedule F will be allowed to use their gross income rather than their net income when calculating their PPP loans.

We owe these folks a great deal of gratitude for working around the clock through the COVID–19 pandemic to ensure the continuity of the food supply chain. The Paycheck Protection for Producers Act will allow these producers to be on an even footing with every other American small business, and I urge my colleagues to join us in supporting our farmers and our ranchers.

REMEMBERING CONGRESSMAN JOHN LEWIS

(Ms. TLAIB asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend her remarks.)

Ms. TLAIB. Madam Speaker, we learned from civil rights giant Congressman John Lewis that we have a moral obligation, a mission, and a mandate to speak up, to speak out, and do it in good trouble.

In honor of your legacy, Congressman Lewis, I will continue the path of good trouble by demanding that water is a human right, by banning racist facial recognition technology, repealing the opportunity zones and spend that money on helping end poverty in Black communities. I will continue to fight to pass your Voting Rights Act.

You reminded us every single day in this Chamber that waiting isn't always the right option. Too many of our residents don't have time to wait any longer. The oppression is killing them.

It is an honor to have served with you, Congressman. I will never forget walking across the Pettus Bridge with you and my young son.

Peace and love.

REMEMBERING ROSEMARY STRATIOTI

(Mr. STAUBER asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. STAUBER. Madam Speaker, I rise today to honor a remarkable woman named Rosemary Stratioti, a well-known West Duluth native who recently passed away from COVID–19.

Her life serves as an example of what it means to be a friend, a neighbor, and a patriot. As a daughter of a World War I veteran and a spouse of a World War II veteran, Rosemary dedicated her life to honoring those who fought and sacrificed for our country.

Rosemary served as the president of the West Duluth American Legion auxiliary for over 50 years. She helped lead and organize the West Duluth Memorial Day parade.

Rosemary made a special effort to ensure the children in her community knew the real meaning behind Memorial Day and that it is not just another day off from school. She was known to say: ''If it wasn't for the soldiers who gave their lives for you and me, we wouldn't be here today.''

She held this patriotic spirit yearround, and when vandals knocked down a concrete eagle from a military veteran's monument in Duluth, it was Rosemary who led an effort to restore the monument honoring veterans.

Madam Speaker, I know that Rosemary Stratioti is already missed by her family, friends, and our whole community of West Duluth, but I hope they are comforted in knowing that she will be long remembered for her many contributions.

Rosemary, rest in peace, faithful servant.
