JURISDICTION AND FUNCTIONS OF THE COMMITTEE

The Congressional Budget Act of 1974 established the Committee on the Budget. The Budget Committee is responsible for developing and reporting the annual concurrent resolution on the budget (budget resolution), assembling and reporting any reconciliation legislation required by that resolution, and implementing and governing the congressional budget process generally. The Committee Chair is responsible for assessing the budgetary effects of legislation under consideration in the House, monitoring such legislation for compliance with the terms of the budget resolution, and providing updated information to the House with respect to budgetary aggregates and allocations.

In addition to its legislative duties, the Budget Committee has responsibility for oversight and studies related to various aspects of the budget process. The Budget Committee oversees the Congressional Budget Office (CBO) and conducts oversight of budget execution practices. As the Committee with oversight over the Federal budget in the broadest sense, it examines significant economic and public policy issues and their implications for the Federal budget. The Committee carries out these oversight and examination responsibilities through hearings, requests for budgetary information from executive branch agencies, requests to CBO and the Government Accountability Office to research and analyze specific topics, and Committee-generated analytic reports.

BUDGET TRACKING AND ENFORCEMENT

The Committee on the Budget worked with authorizing committees and the Appropriations Committee to monitor legislation and evaluate its compliance with H. Res. 1151, S. Con. Res. 14, H. Res. 467, S. Con. Res. 5, the Congressional Budget Act of 1974, the Statutory Pay-As-You-Go Act of 2010, and any budget related provisions of the Rules of the House. Pursuant to provisions of the Congressional Budget Act, the Chair periodically published budgetary status reports in the Congressional Record (see Appendix 1). Pursuant to the Statutory Pay-As-You-Go Act (PAYGO), the Chair published estimates of the PAYGO budgetary effects of legislation being considered in the House (see Appendix 2).

OVERSIGHT ACTIVITIES

The primary responsibility of the Budget Committee is the development of a budget resolution that sets spending and revenue levels in aggregate and across all budget functions. The budget functions encompass all Federal programs or activities other than those that are defined as off-budget, such as Social Security and the Postal Service, and those that are considered non-budgetary, such as the Federal Reserve.

The Budget Committee's formal oversight responsibility focuses on laws governing the budget process and the agencies responsible. Under clause 1(d)(1)-(3) of House Rule X, the major laws falling within its oversight include the Budget and Accounting Act of 1921, the Congressional Budget and Impoundment Control Act of 1974, the Balanced Budget and Emergency Deficit Control Act of 1985, the Budget Enforcement Act of 1990, the Federal Credit Reform Act of 1990, PAYGO, the Budget Control Act of 2011, and the Bipartisan Budget Act of 2019. The two agencies with primary responsibility for administering elements of these laws and hence which fall under the Committee's jurisdiction are OMB and CBO.

The Committee was active in its oversight duties during the 117th Congress. The Committee focused on oversight of the full budget, particularly looking at issues of potential impact on the budget and economy over the longer term including the debt limit, the benefits of the American Rescue Plan, and Congress' Article I responsibilities (see list of hearings).

The House Budget Committee met on February 9, 2021 to organize for the 117th Congress. The Committee adopted its rules of procedure and in accordance with clause 2(d) of House Rule X submitted the oversight plan, along with minority views, to the Committee on Oversight and Reform and the Committee on House Administration. The priorities of the oversight plan include holding hearings and receiving testimony from Members of Congress, Cabinet-level and other Federal officials, and expert witnesses to review the President's budget submissions and to review other budget priorities.

The Committee's oversight plan calls for focusing on a range of issues, including COVID's effect on the economy, ending poverty and systemic inequities, and ensuring that communities are not left behind regardless of geographic location or density. It also calls for the Committee to examine how budgetary policies may affect people based on factors such as race, color, ethnicity, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, disability, age, and national origin.

The oversight plan also calls for the continuous assessment of the performance of Federal agencies in both administration and service delivery by reviewing performance data in the President's budget submissions and the relevant reports and audits of the Government Accountability Office and the Offices of the Inspectors General. In addition, it calls for the Budget Committee to review Views and Estimates that are submitted to the Committee pursuant to section 301(d) of the Congressional Budget Act, to coordinate its oversight activities with other committees.

With regard to budget enforcement, the Committee's oversight plan calls for ongoing oversight of the OMB implementation of budget submission, control, execution, and enforcement of procedures under the Budget and Accounting Act of 1921, the Congressional Budget and Impoundment Control Act of 1974, the Budget Enforcement Act of 1990, the Balanced Budget and Emergency Deficit Control Act of 1985, the Federal Credit Reform Act of 1990, PAYGO, the Bipartisan Budget Act of 2019, and other applicable laws. In addition, the Committee's oversight plan calls for examining the accuracy, timeliness, and responsiveness of OMB.

The Budget Committee's plan also calls for working with the appropriations and authorizing committees to ensure that spending and tax legislation does not breach the levels set in the budget resolution, as required under sections 302(f) and 311(a) of the Congressional Budget Act of 1974. The Committee also monitored compliance with the House Pay-As-You-Go rule (Rule XXI, Sec. 10) requiring that direct spending increases and revenue losses be offset with either direct spending reductions or revenue increases.

MINORITY VIEWS

SUMMARY REPORT

During the 117th Congress, Budget Committee Democrats acted on a set of clearly misplaced priorities while claiming to be focused on the concerns of the American people. For example, although President Biden and congressional Democrats claimed they reduced the deficit, the reverse is actually true—both spending and the debt have increased, and Americans today are facing the highest spike in prices and the fastest increase in interest rates in 40 years. Despite this dismal reality, Budget Committee Democrats have continued to insist on a reckless spending agenda that has fueled today's inflation crisis. Their policies have been misguided and the Biden Administration's pursuit of its agenda has not been met with the level of accountability and oversight Congress should pursue on behalf of the American people.

DEMOCRATS' DISREGARD FOR FISCAL RESPONSIBILITY

Democrats' disregard for fiscal responsibility this Congress began immediately when Speaker Pelosi convened the 117th Congress. House Resolution 8, "Adopting the Rules of the House of Representatives for the One Hundred Seventeenth Congress, and for other purposes," included a new broad budgetary exemption, which exempts legislation with massive budget effects from budgetary enforcement, including the Democrats' own House PAYGO rule; continued the elimination of Congress's ability to debate an increase to the debt limit; and removed the House rule prohibiting an increase in net direct spending in budget reconciliation instructions.

These actions only served to diminish budget transparency and accountability to the harm of American taxpayers. Budget Committee Democrats continually abused the Federal budget process in order to push through an expensive and partisan agenda which has hit American taxpayers the hardest.

Democrats' reckless spending spree has increased Federal spending by $10 trillion above what was projected when President Biden took office. This is a record for a President's first 20 months in office and more than the first 196 years of the Federal Government combined. New spending enacted by Democrats includes:

- $2.5 trillion increase in interest payments on the growing Federal debt;
- $1.9 trillion from the American Rescue Plan Act;
- $745 billion from the Inflation Reduction Act;
- $1+ trillion from President Biden's executive actions; and
- $625 billion from the Infrastructure Investment and Jobs Act.

Democrats' policies have also resulted in discretionary spending increasing by 8 percent per year, four times faster than the previous decade. Additionally, mandatory spending increased by $6.5 trillion since President Biden took office, the most ever added in one Congress, and the national debt increased by $3.6 trillion—again, a record for a President's first 20 months in office.

Democrats' historic spending has resulted in:

- The highest inflation in 40 years—up 14.3 percent since President Biden took office.
- Since President Biden took office, the average American household has lost at least $9,000 in purchasing power.
- Since President Biden took office, real wages have declined 3.8 percent.
- Interest rates rising at the fastest pace in 40 years.
- 111 percent increase in gas prices at peak.
- $80 billion to double the size of the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) with 87,000 new agents.
- One million new audits coming for American families earning less than $200,000.
- $500+ billion student loan giveaway to the wealthy.
- $400+ billion in "green" welfare for the wealthy and big corporations.

Democrats' Failure to Budget

Committee Democrats failed to mark up a budget in the 117th Congress. A primary responsibility of the Committee on the Budget is to draft and mark up a concurrent resolution on the budget for every fiscal year. Instead, Committee Democrats skipped the Committee markup process altogether and used the shell of a budget for both Fiscal Year 2021 and Fiscal Year 2022 solely to trigger reconciliation and enact their broader agenda, intentionally hiding their spending plans from the American people by avoiding any debate about spending priorities. In short, the Democrats' only desire when it came to a budget in the 117th Congress was to unlock the budget reconciliation process to enact an inherently partisan, massive spending agenda.

Reconciliation Legislation

American Rescue Plan Act of 2021

In February 2021, after congressional Democrats quickly adopted a Fiscal Year 2021 shell budget resolution—notably after all funding for Fiscal Year 2021 was already appropriated—the Budget Committee marked up reconciliation legislation, H.R. 1319, the American Rescue Plan Act of 2021. This legislation came with a massive $2 trillion price tag combined with harmful policies that incentivized State lockdowns, harmed working-class Americans, and prioritized a political agenda over a COVID–19 response (only 9 percent of the bill's funding was for combatting the virus via public health efforts). Specifically, this bill included $400 billion on policies to pay people to stay home and not work and $500 billion to bail out State and local governments.

The Congressional Budget Office (CBO) also confirmed that this stimulus spending was economically unnecessary. At the time the reconciliation bill was being considered, the nonpartisan agency was already projecting—absent any new stimulus funds—the economy would return to pre-pandemic levels of real GDP growth by mid–2021, unemployment would steadily decline, and the country would face the largest economic growth in more than 15 years. It should also be noted that, at the time of the Committee's markup, approximately $1 trillion of the $4 trillion in previous COVID–19-relief enacted by Congress remained unspent. That is why Committee Republicans offered a motion to postpone the markup in order to provide the Biden Administration with sufficient time to provide Congress a complete and transparent accounting of the amount of COVID-related funds that had been spent, funds that remained unspent, and a timeline for when the Administration anticipated the disbursement of the remaining unspent funds. Unfortunately, Committee Democrats rejected this motion.

During the markup, Committee Republicans offered 12 motions to instruct to establish key protections for working-class Americans, seniors, families, and ensure the legislation was in fact focused on combatting the COVID–19 virus, including:

A motion offered by Representative Hinson (IA) and Representative Feenstra (IA) to stop the legislation from harming America's working class.

A motion offered by Representative Donalds (FL) and Representative Grothman (WI) to stop the legislation from harming America's seniors and low-and middle-income working-class Americans.

A motion offered by Representative Feenstra (IA) and Representative Boebert (CO) to stop the legislation from using the COVID–19 pandemic to advance a political agenda.

A motion offered by Representative Boebert (CO) and Representative Obernolte (CA) to stop the legislation from rewarding politicians who harm workers, small businesses, and students.

A motion offered by Representative Obernolte (CA) and Representative Good (VA) to stop the legislation from harming rural America.

A motion offered by Ranking Member Smith (MO) and Representative Carter (GA) to stop the Administration from harming union and working-class Americans, to benefit President Biden's campaign supporters.

A motion offered by Representative Grothman (WI) and Representative Donalds (FL) to put American working families' needs, protection, and support ahead of illegal immigrants and globalism.

A motion offered by Representative Jacobs (NY) and Representative Smucker (PA) to stop bailing out States that cannot or will not protect their nursing home residents and staff.

A motion offered by Ranking Member Smith (MO) and Representative Smucker (PA) to protect America's seniors from President Biden's agenda.

A motion offered by Representative Burgess (TX) and Ranking Member Smith (MO) to protect American families from the COVID–19 virus by testing and providing personal protective equipment to illegal immigrants at the Southern Border as a result of President Biden's border crisis.

A motion offered by Representative Good (VA) and Representative Cline (VA) to support Americans harmed by lockdowns.

A motion offered by Representative Donalds (FL) and Representative Hinson (IA) to put America's children ahead of politicians.

Committee Democrats rejected all of these motions.

In March 2021, Democrats enacted their $2 trillion American Rescue Plan Act which Budget Committee Republicans proved, through aggressive oversight, was the wrong plan, at the wrong time, and for all the wrong reasons. The legislation's billions of dollars in State and local government bailouts incentivized continued State and local lockdowns causing many Americans to lose their jobs, small businesses to shut down, and children to be kept out of the classroom. Since its enactment, Americans have been anything but rescued as record-high inflation has robbed their paychecks and worker shortages—brought on by Democrat policies that paid people to not work—have exacerbated the supply chain crisis. According to a January 2022 poll by CNBC and Change Research, only 21 percent of voters believed that this law has helped them while 29 percent said it has left them worse off.

While Congress debated this law, Republicans warned that it would only fuel inflation, and Democrats including Larry Summers, a former economic advisor to President Obama and former Treasury Secretary under President Clinton, warned that the American Rescue Plan would cause "inflationary pressures of a kind we have not seen in a generation."[1] Even the San Francisco Bank of the Federal Reserve has subsequently found that the American Rescue Plan helped ignite the highest inflation in 40 years. Equally troubling is the fact that much of the law's spending became a slush fund for State and local governments to spend without any real guidance from Congress or the Biden Administration and allowed billions of taxpayer dollars to be wasted. Committee Republicans produced weekly communications titled, What Would They Have Me Cut?, highlighting numerous examples of waste in the American Rescue Plan Act including: $783 million in checks to Federal prisoners, $5 million for a moonshine walking trail, $140 million for a luxury hotel, and $2 million to plant trees, to name a few.

BUILD BACK BETTER ACT/INFLATION REDUCTION ACT OF 2022

In September 2021, Democrats continued their inflationary spending spree by adopting the Fiscal Year 2022 concurrent resolution on the budget, once again, skipping the Committee markup process, and using a shell of a budget to trigger reconciliation and enact partisan legislation. House Democrats quickly wrote H.R. 5376, the Build Back Better Act, a plan to bankrupt the country by adding $5 trillion in new Federal spending, $1.5 trillion in new taxes, and $3 trillion in new debt, as confirmed by CBO, and further fuel the highest spike in prices in 40 years. The bill primarily benefited the wealthy by including various tax breaks and handouts, including special interest carveouts, such as restoring a State and Local Tax Deduction that primarily benefits high-income households, homebuying and childcare subsidies for couples earning more than $200,000 a year, and electric vehicle subsidies for couples earning $500,000 a year. The Build Back Better Act also called to drastically increase Washington command and control over Americans through the largest expansion of the Federal Government in 50 years, including creating more than 150 new government programs.

The Committee on the Budget marked up H.R. 5376 on September 25, 2021. At the time of the Committee's markup only four of 13 cost estimates for the legislation were available, meaning only 1 percent of the legislation had been scored by CBO. Additionally, the debt limit suspension had also expired on August 1, 2021, and the U.S. Department of the Treasury projected at the time that extraordinary measures would be exhausted by mid-to-late October. However, instead of tabling their efforts to spend what Committee Republicans were projecting to be trillions more, Committee Democrats failed to act on avoiding a default on the Nation's debt limit and instead chose to advance the most expensive piece of legislation in American history. Prior to the markup, Ranking Member Jason Smith sent a letter to Chairman John Yarmuth requesting that the Committee use its markup to amend the Fiscal Year 2022 budget resolution to include reconciliation instructions to address the impending debt limit crisis. Additionally, Committee Republicans offered a motion to postpone the markup by 48 hours in order to provide Democrats additional time to draft an amendment to the Fiscal Year 2022 budget resolution to include reconciliation instructions to address the debt limit. Committee Democrats rejected the motion.

During the Committee on the Budget's markup, Committee Republicans offered 16 motions to instruct in an effort to defend federalism, transparency, communities in need, American taxpayers, the sanctity of life, and working families, including:

A motion offered by Ranking Member Smith (MO) to cancel handouts and tax cuts for the wealthy.

A motion offered by Representative Kelly (MS) to protect the agriculture industry from a new methane fee.

A motion offered by Representative McClintock (CA) to stop amnesty for illegal immigrants.

A motion offered by Representative Grothman (WI) to put American students first.

A motion offered by Representative Smucker (PA) to protect America's farmers and small businesses from ruinous tax hikes.

A motion offered by Representative Jacobs (NY) to help tenants stay in their homes while preserving affordable housing.

A motion offered by Representative Burgess (TX) to protect access to life-saving treatments, cures, and medical innovation.

A motion offered by Representative Cline (VA) to uphold President Biden's pledge that no American earning less than $400,000 will shoulder the burden of the tobacco tax.

A motion offered by Representative Carter (GA) to ensure States' rights in administering their health care programs.

A motion offered by Representative Boebert (CO) to prioritize funding for combatting wildfires and hurricane relief instead of earmarks for Speaker Pelosi and other Democrat pet projects.

A motion offered by Representative Donalds (FL) to stop the weaponization of the IRS to target American taxpayers.

A motion offered by Representative Feenstra (IA) to provide the CBO time to analyze the remaining 99 percent of the Democrats' proposal that has yet to be scored and ensure Congress and the American people have a clear understanding of the true impact of the legislation.

A motion offered by Representative Good (VA) to prevent taxpayer dollars from being used to fund abortion services.

A motion offered by Representative Hinson (IA) to prevent subsidies for the wealthy to purchase luxury electric vehicles.

A motion offered by Representative Obernolte (CA) to focus congressional attention on how to reduce spending.

A motion offered by Representative Miller (WV) to prevent tax increases on Americans making less than $400,000 per year.

Although none of these motions were adopted, several received bipartisan support in Committee.

The House began consideration of H.R. 5376 without an official cost estimate from CBO and ultimately passed the bill on a partisan basis. Senate Democratic Leadership then rewrote the legislation using various budget gimmicks and fake sunsets to hide the legislation's true costs and inflationary spending and renamed the bill the ironic Inflation Reduction Act. House Budget Committee Republicans exercised aggressive oversight of the amended bill to highlight for both Chambers the true cost of the bill, $745 billion, in addition to CBO's confirmation that the legislation adds $60 billion to the debt over the first five years of the budget window and 90 percent of the law's "deficit reduction" would not show up until after 2029.

The legislation also includes spending for numerous misguided priorities such as:

- $3 billion for Environmental and Climate Justice.
- $7.5 billion for new luxury electric vehicles for taxpayers making upwards of $300,000.
- $27 billion for a national "climate bank" slush-fund at the EPA.
- A $362 million handout to corporate America to make their office buildings 'greener'.

This legislation was signed into law as P.L. 117–169, the Inflation Reduction Act of 2022. Democrats have shown time and again that they believe they can spend their way out of inflation and tax their way out of recession. Yet, their legislation only makes the suffering Americans are already facing much worse. According to CBO, in addition to over 230 economists, the Inflation Reduction Act, despite its name, does not reduce inflation but rather could further fuel the high prices already crushing American families.

Additionally, CBO confirmed that the Inflation Reduction Act, which adds 87,000 new IRS agents and increases the IRS budget above its previous historical high in 2010 (while it was targeting conservative groups), will lead to more audits and enforcement measures as well as billions of dollars of additional taxes for families earning less than $400,000, directly conflicting with President Biden's promise to not increase taxes on these families. This led Treasury Secretary Yellen to direct IRS Commissioner Rettig that "any additional resources—including any new personnel or auditors that are hired—shall not be used to increase the share of small business or households below the $400,000 threshold that are audited relative to historic levels." In response to a letter to CBO from House Budget Committee Ranking Member Smith and Ways and Means Ranking Member Brady inquiring on this, CBO confirmed Secretary Yellen's directive fails to prohibit increased enforcement activities by the IRS. Rather, if IRS audits returned to the "historical levels" per Secretary Yellen's directive, then lower- and middle-income earners could face an increase of 710,000 additional audits.

DEMOCRATS' LACK OF OVERSIGHT

In the 117th Congress, Committee Democrats failed to abide by the Committee's own oversight plan—particularly when it came to the historical amount of Federal spending they unleashed. The Committee on the Budget's Oversight Plan for the 117th Congress States that this ". . .Committee will be active in its oversight duties. . .[t]he Committee will continue its efforts to strengthen Congress' power of the purse, through recommending specific reforms to ensure spending and revenue decisions are transparent and effectively carried out by the Executive Branch."[2] Yet, the Committee failed to hold any robust oversight hearings during the 117th Congress.

Committee Republicans requested multiple oversight hearings throughout the 117th Congress, including a hearing on President Biden's impoundment of congressionally appropriated funds enacted on a bipartisan basis for the border wall—an issue of particular importance given the ongoing crisis at the U.S. Southern Border. On April 29, 2021, Chairman Yarmuth convened the Committee for a hearing on Congress's power of the purse where Republicans exposed how President Biden's executive action to terminate border wall construction and freeze all congressionally appropriated funds dedicated to the project was not only an abuse of executive branch power, but also directly contributed to the Southern Border crisis.

In June 2022, 11 Republican Committee Members (more than two-thirds of Committee Republicans) continued oversight of the border crisis and traveled to the U.S. Southern Border to see firsthand the magnitude and consequences of President Biden's policies. Since President Biden took office, there have been over four million migrant encounters at the Southwest Border, in addition to over one million known persons who evaded U.S. Border Patrol agents in the last two years. In Fiscal Year 2022, Customs and Border Protection seized 656,000 pounds of drugs, including 14,700 pounds of fentanyl. Cartels are profiting roughly $32 million per day from human trafficking while taxpayers are paying roughly $6 million per day to contractors to guard $350 million worth of unused border steel sitting in various scrapyards around the U.S. It has been nearly two years since President Biden froze Federal funds for border wall construction, which has directly resulted in a national security and humanitarian crisis at the Southern Border.

[2] Committee on the Budget, U.S. House of Representatives, "Oversight Plan of the Committee on the Budget for the 117th Congress, House of Representatives," 2021.

In December 2021, Committee Republicans made a direct request for a hearing on the American Rescue Plan Act, a law which has fostered an ongoing trail of misuse and abuse of Federal tax dollars. Chairman Yarmuth convened the Committee on June 14, 2022, for a hearing on the law, only to tout the supposed benefits of the plan with no attempts to discover the extent to which this law was poorly implemented and resulted in waste, fraud, and abuse. As Ranking Member Smith noted at the time, neither President Biden's "Rescue Czar" Gene Sperling nor his Treasury Secretary Janet Yellen appeared to testify at that hearing despite their direct involvement in overseeing the disbursement of trillions of taxpayer dollars.

In the absence of oversight by Committee Democrats, Committee Republicans diligently worked to expose numerous examples of waste and abuse in the implementation of the $2 trillion American Rescue Plan Act. Since May 2021, Committee Republicans produced 80 weekly communications titled, What Would They Have Me Cut?, which have highlighted the waste in the American Rescue Plan Act to provide Americans transparency of where their tax dollars were being spent. Some of these examples include:

- $140 million for a luxury hotel in Florida.
- $7.2 million for horse racing in Arizona.
- $5 million for a moonshine walking trail in North Carolina.
- $4 million for beach bathrooms and parking lots in South Carolina.
- $2.1 million for a golf course in Florida.
- $2 million to plant trees in New York.
- $2 million for a ski mountain in Iowa.
- Up to $4.38 billion in checks sent to illegal immigrants.
- $1,400 checks sent to thousands of Japanese citizens living in Japan.
