UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA	:	CRIMINAL CASE NO. 25-157 (RC)
	:
v.	:
	:
JEWRAL MCINTYRE,	:
	:
Defendant.	:

ORDER

1. Upon a representation by the United States that the defendant has never been subject to "routine processing" (booking, fingerprinting, photographing) in this case:

2. It is this 23rd day of April, 2026, ORDERED:

3. That if the defendant is released on bond, a condition of his bond is to report to the United States Marshal's Office and to the Federal Bureau of Investigation on a date and time convenient to him to undergo "routine processing."

4. That if the defendant is not released on bond, the United States Marshal shall release the defendant to the custody of FBI Special Agent Michael Biscardi for the purpose of "routine processing," and once that processing is completed, the FBI shall return the defendant to the custody of the Marshal.

Rudolph Contreras
U.S. District Court Judge