UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
MIDDLE DISTRICT OF FLORIDA
ORLANDO DIVISION

TRIAL CALENDAR ORDER

The following cases are set for trial during the JANUARY 2026 Trial Term commencing Monday, January 5, 2026, before the HONORABLE ROY B. DALTON, JR.

The cases are listed in the order in which they will be tried, although experience indicates that at times cases may be called out of order. For the convenience of counsel, the names and telephone numbers of all counsel are furnished so that counsel may keep themselves informed of the progress of the cases listed prior to their own. Counsel will be notified telephonically for trial by the Courtroom Deputy Clerk. Counsel and their witnesses are expected to be available on 48 hours' notice.

Counsel should be familiar with the Court's Case Management and Scheduling Order ("CMSO") and all Local Rules, especially Local Rule 5.03 regarding courtroom decorum. Witnesses must appear in proper business attire which, for gentlemen includes coat and tie.

Parties are directed to furnish three (3) copies of their exhibit and witness lists to the Courtroom Deputy Clerk before jury selection. All exhibits are to be pre-marked in accordance with the attached instructions. Local Rule 3.07.

Counsel are reminded to advise the Court promptly of any development subsequent to the entry of this Order which would in any way affect the trial of their case by contacting the Courtroom Deputy Clerk at (407) 835-8587.

In CRIMINAL CASES, guilty pleas should be entered before the Court on or before the date announced at the status conference. Contact the Courtroom Deputy to be placed on the Court's calendar for a change of plea. Counsel for the defendants on bond are charged with the responsibility of notifying the defendants when the case is called for trial and informing them that their presence is required.

Any request for continuance shall be presented in writing and in accordance with the requirements of the Court's CMSO and Local Rule 3.08. In addition, any request for continuance shall include a report of every non-moving party's current support for or opposition to the requested continuance. If a request for continuance is based upon a calendar conflict with another proceeding, the request must provide the information pertinent to a resolution of the conflict (i.e., the information necessary to confirm the existence of, and to determine the applicable priority of, the conflicting events in accord with the prescriptions in the "Resolution of the Florida State-Federal Judicial Council Regarding Calendar Conflicts Between State and Federal Courts" [appended to and adopted in Krasnow v. Navarro, 909 F.2d 451, 455 (11th Cir. 1990), and codified in Rule 2.052, Florida Rules of Judicial Administration, as amended and adopted in Amendments to the Florida Rules of Judicial Administration, 682 So. 2d 89 (Fla. 1996)]).

Counsel are reminded to review the Court's preferences located on the Court's webpage at https://www.flmd.uscourts.gov/judges/roy-dalton-jr.
