UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

v.

EMMETT BOWENS,
Appellant

Case No. 6:21-cr-00141-RBD-NWH

PRO SE DIRECT APPEAL

COMES NOW the Appellant, EMMETT BOWENS, proceeding pro se, and respectfully submits this appeal challenging portions of the conviction and sentence entered by the district court. The Appellant respectfully asserts that reversible error occurred during the proceedings and sentencing phase of this matter.

ISSUE I IMPROPER SENTENCING ENHANCEMENT

The district court allegedly erred in applying a twelve-level sentencing enhancement that Appellant contends was unsupported by sufficient evidence and factual findings contained within the record. Appellant respectfully contends that the enhancement substantially increased the advisory guideline range and resulted in an unreasonable sentence. Appellant further asserts that the enhancement was applied without sufficient proof establishing the factual basis necessary to justify the increase.

ISSUE II BRADY VIOLATION

Appellant further contends that the Government violated Brady v. Maryland by allegedly failing to disclose material exculpatory evidence favorable to the defense. Appellant respectfully asserts that the withholding of favorable evidence impaired the ability to fully prepare and present a defense and affected the fairness of the proceedings.

ISSUE III DUE PROCESS VIOLATIONS

Appellant further asserts that violations of constitutional due process rights occurred during the proceedings. Appellant contends that cumulative procedural errors, rulings, and alleged irregularities deprived Appellant of a fundamentally fair proceeding as guaranteed under the Constitution.

RELIEF REQUESTED

WHEREFORE, Appellant respectfully requests that this Court: 1. Vacate the sentence imposed; 2. Remand the matter for resentencing; 3. Grant any additional relief deemed appropriate and just; and/or 4. Grant such other relief as the Court considers proper.

Respectfully submitted,
