GOVERNMENT'S MOTION FOR EXTENSION OF TIME

The United States of America, by Roger B. Handberg, United States Attorney for the Middle District of Florida, files this Motion for Extension of Time within which to file its responses to the defendant's motion to suppress/preclude statements, Doc. 44, filed by defendant on May 5, 2022, and would state:

1. In his motion the defendant moves this Court to suppress/preclude his statements to a Customs and Border Protection (CBP) officer and to agents from the Federal Bureau of Investigations (FBI).

2. Agents from the FBI are in the process of attempting to identify and contact the CBP officer who spoke with the defendant on date of his arrest.

3. Identifying the CBP officer who spoke with the defendant on the date of his arrest is necessary for a full analysis of the context in which the defendant's statements were made.

WHEREFORE, the United States of America, moves for an extension of 14 days within which to file government's responses to those motions filed by the defendant.
