Re: United States v. Ryan E. Dales, Crim. No. GLR-23-026

Dear Judge Russell:

We write on behalf of the parties in the above-referenced matter to provide a further status report and to request respectfully that the Court set a further status report deadline of September 11, 2023.

On May 24, 2023, Defendant's new counsel was appointed, and thereafter the Government provided new counsel all of the discovery that had been previously produced in this matter.

The Government thereafter proposed that the parties ask the Court to set a further status report deadline of September 11, 2023 to allow counsel time to continue to review discovery and to assess the case and for the parties to begin to conduct discussions regarding resolution on this matter short of trial. Counsel to Defendant consented to this proposal.

In light of the above, the Government respectfully requests that the Court set a further status report deadline of September 11, 2023.

Respectfully submitted,

Erek L. Barron
United States Attorney
