Re: United States of America v. Ryan E. Dales, Crim. No. GLR-23-26

Dear Chief Judge Russell:

I write on behalf of the Government in the above-referenced case to respectfully request that the Court extend the deadline for the Government to provide its trial exhibits to the defense from October 28, 2024—the date of the pre-trial conference in this matter—to November 11, 2024. The first trial, pertaining to the drug and firearm counts in the indictment, is set to begin on December 2, 2024. ECF No. 64. That trial will be immediately followed by the trial pertaining to the fraud and aggravated identity theft counts in the indictment.

Due to the press of obligations from other cases, including exhibit preparation for another pending trial, undersigned counsel seeks a brief extension to allow the Government additional time to finalize its exhibits. If Government counsel is in a position to provide its trial exhibits to the defense prior to November 11, 2024, it will do so. I have conferred with counsel to Defendant regarding this request; he does not object to it.

Accordingly, the Government respectfully requests that the Court extend the deadline for the Government to provide its trial exhibits to the defense from October 28, 2024 to November 11, 2024

Respectfully submitted,

Erek L. Barron
United States Attorney
