To Whom it may concern,

My name is Dr. Katz. I am originally from N.Y.. At the Age of 30, I decided to Retire and move to Israel, where I would eventually open 8 (Eight) Free Dental clinics for the poor people living in Israel. These clinics are open to Any poor person Non-Discriminatory of Race, Color, or Religon.

I could only have done this with the Help and Support of Daniel Dadoun.

Without his Moral + Financial Support These clinics are in jeopardy of being able to stay open.

There are Thousands of people at stake

I can attest for Daniel's Morality and care for Those in need.

To the esteemed Mr. Daniel Dadon, the great man of deeds

I have long wished to thank you for your important activities and help in all the various areas, be it in establishing vital organizations or extending monthly support to hundreds of large families, all with an unbelievably good heart and so much generosity, and with no expectations in return.

Every time I have heard you speak, I saw clearly that whatever you do is done gladly and from the goodness of your heart. You always strive to help others as much as you can and you constantly come up with new ideas to do so and to spread light.

I am duly impressed, and I thank you again for your wonderful accomplishments. May you be able to continue with all that you do and all your endeavors and ideas, and may you further succeed in assisting others.

With respect and appreciation,

Yosef Abutbul

To the revered benefactor Rabbi Daniel Dadon

I hereby extend my heartfelt thanks for your aid and assistance in sponsoring free vouchers for groceries before the High Holidays.

These vouchers helped us tremendously and allowed us to celebrate the holidays in peace and joy with no worries.

May G-d repay you for your kindness plentifully!

With much appreciation, Ben Tzion Avital

Dear Rabbi Danie Dadon, man of great charity!

I want to thank you for the generous gifts we received from you before the holidays. You have literally gifted us with joy in our holidays. It is clear that with your help, we were able to celebrate with much more happiness.

I want to wish you to merit continuing to give to all those thousands of families generous gifts before the annual High Holidays and on other special occasions as is your custom. And you should continue to do good and to give to thousands of people the world over.

Yours, Efrat Avitan

I wish to express our deep feelings of gratitude to Mr. Daniel Dadon for the amazing things he does for our community and specifically, for us.

Mr. Dadon has helped us a lot over a number of years. He eased our financial stress by assisting generously with holiday expenses and by sending useful gifts such as vouchers, watches, pots and other necessary items.

Additionally, Mr. Dadon helped us marry off our son- he sponsored the hall and the band.

Many members of our community receive free dental treatments sponsored by him, and the large families among us receive funds for large one-time expenses.

With much blessing and appreciation

I want to testify about the beloved donor, the great Mr. Daniel Dadon by whom I was personally helped, when he helped me pay for my son's wedding six years ago. I know that many of my friends have likewise received financial aid from him- they are all in a state in which they need support and cannot manage to support their families and households on their own.

In addition, there are people who have been suffering for many years from toothache but could not afford dental care. Until Mr. Daneil Dadon came into the picture and offered to sponsor the treatments. My friend's wife, for example, suffered from terrible toothache after several births but they could not afford to treat it. And then Mr. Daniel paid for it in full.

On top of all this, Mr. Dadon pays from his own pocket generous monthly stipends for many married Torah Scholars in his chain of Kollels- Torah Learning centers. And when one of the students' washer machine breaks or a refrigerator ceases to work, said scholar and his family receive that month an additional bonus on top of the monthly stipend so they can afford a new machine. And that is how he spreads light and joy in so many homes.

All these activities and many more show Mr. Dadon's exceptional good-heartedness. He donates so generously to a young man every month and expects nothing in return. And now that the man m=needs a new appliance, he gives him that as well. There is no other explanation for this other than pure goodness of the heart, that comes directly from the good G-d, the source of all goodness Who bestows blessing to all whom He created.

A friend and appreciating fan of Mr. Daniel Dadon,

Yaakov Avitan

To the world-renowned donor, dear Daniel Dadon!

I want to thank you for arranging and paying for my dental care, which you gave me free of cost.

It was truly a huge help, as I had no means to pay for it and you have added peace and pleasure to my life.

And of course, I thank you for the financial help before the holidays. You make our celebration that much more delightful.

Wishing you to merit continue making thousands of families happy!

To the esteemed Rav Dadon.

Your acts of kindness are huge, and are famous the world over for the massive help they bring. So much so that to come and write a little thank you note is almost a joke, for what are a few words against your enormous efforts and accomplishments. But I will do what I feel I have to, and I hereby wish to thank you in my name and in that of all the people you support. I thank you for all the help and support, all of which are done with one single purpose: to give and to give and to help and to support and to help some more. It is known that you yourself refrain from many pleasures that many wealthy people indulge in. You save money in order to help the public, even though you do not owe us a thing and even though you get nothing in return. One thing is behind it all, and that is a heart of gold, a heart that is one piece of goodness and giving to others.

And it is so clear and obvious that in times when there is more money, there is so much more money being given too, such as the free weddings and more. And really, the organization sponsoring weddings is a very big help, because when a family marries off a child the expenses simply outnumber the income many times over. And the income for the families you support is, obviously, not glorious. And there is the dowry to buy, and clothing to buy, and so many things for the wedding to pay for, not to mention an apartment for the young couple, just the thought of which can scare one off. And so much money is needed for the wedding, it can only be reached through loans, and so on. And you, on your own, came and established this wonderful organization. It is so helpful, it's a tremendous assistance for parents of large families. It is a sign of the good heart that never ceases to think and do to make things better and help others.

There are many individuals who help their fellows and do good, but such a true giver is rare, one who gives from himself to no end and gives all that is his for the greater community. And not in order to gain respect or a coveted position, the opposite is true- many times through the giving the giver receives insults in return. Still, you go on and continue as much as is at all possible, to benefit others. A patron like this I have not seen before. A d this is a true patron. Go on with the powers you have got, do not fear and do not despair. We are with you and pray for your success.

Shalom!

We wish to publicly express our gratitude for the generous support we received from Mr. Daniel Dadon, who assisted our family financially with the expenses related to our son's wedding.

His support was especially helpful as we had so many expenses outweighing our income.

Mr. Dadon's help evidently came from his good will and pure desire to help a fellow, it is what allowed us to manage financially during these times.

With much gratitude and appreciation,

A. Nussbaum and Family

To whom may concern,

I am writing to share my best memory with Mr Daniel Dadoun who know excellent he was when he working with me. Daniel had established Seldar in 2015. I was very fortunate to be recruited as part of the first team in VN. We worked on soft une development, and Daniel entrusted me with manging the teame. Daniel has shown an iconic example of hard work. I have seen him work non stop even after flying to Vietnam until he is very tired and touch a snap on office desk. Everytime he visited, he found items to donate to Vietnamese people and ensure our staffs are happy by allowing us doing many team activities.

Our Vietnam office always has better benefits than other offices in other country. He has demonstrated strong leadership and inspired our staffs. In business, sometimes we make mistakes, but Daniel always remind us to keep our health well and keep moving forward. After all Daniel is a good guy.)

Dear Judge,

I write these lines to talk about my boss Daniel Dadoun, he is an excellent human being. When he comes to the company he is one of us, greeting everyone without exception, he is very humble and always worried about our well being. And if we have any problems, and if he is able, he helps us without any hesitation. The truth is for us who work with him, he is not a boss, he is a friend, we love him very much and we wish him the best, it is a pleasure to work with him. Thank you very much, Mr. Daniel Dadoun.

Dear Judge,

To whom it may concern.

I want to start by highlighting that Mr. Daniel Dadoun is a wonderful human being that I had the opportunity to meet in 2014. Personally, what I have to say is that Daniel has changed my life and the lives of my five children. I started out as a regular Warehouse employee and today I am in charge of one part of the Responsibilities of his company. Thanks to Daniel, my five children have shelter, food, clothing among other things. He has taught me that everything in this life is possible by working hard and making an effort.

Daniel as a person is an extraordinary human being, he is a very understandable, very human, very noble, he has helped many people in addition to myself.

Daniel is an excellent boss who gives you positive examples, gives you the opportunity to learn and develop with your own opinion.

Daniel is the kind of boss who gives you the necessary tools so that we can be excellent employees. Today, I still work day by day in Mr. Daniel Dadoun's company and like me many other people depend on our employer.

My correct Address is 294 Birmingham Rd, Pemberton NJ 08068.

Dear Judge,
Dear Daniel Dadoun,
Address: 94 Berry St Somerset NJ 08873

Today, with a feeling of deep gratitude, I wish to express my gratitude for your exceptional leadership and for the trust placed in me during my time at DG Staffing Services. Your ability to guide and teach and motivate has left an indelible mark on my professional development. I want to thank you for every opportunity provided for your patience and for always being willing to offer a word of encouragement or a word of wisdom. You have been much more than a boss, you have been a mentor and a guide throughout my time.

Through your direction, I have learned the importance of teamwork, dedication and passion for what we do. You have been a role model and a constant inspiration for me and the entire team.

With deep respect,
Jesus Marquez

Dear Judge,

My name is Roshni and I have been an employee of Daniel Dadouns for about 2.5 years now. I started here at Wareworks as a young and naive 26 year old, scared to see what the world had in store for me. Daniel made it very easy for me since day 1 of me starting to work for him. He was the one giving me hands-on training to become a good sales manager for him, but also making sure I was at ease and very comfortable in the work setting. We used to go into NY together at times to visit clients together. My favorite moments with him were in those car rides to the city. We would talk about work, but also he became a good friend and mentor of mine. I was able to open up to him about numerous other things other than work, which he would try to advise me on with the best of his knowledge. In my eyes he was an amazing boss, mentor, friend, and also like a father figure to me.

Thank you,

Roshni Patel

Dear Judge,

My name is Sandy Paz, and I have worked with Daniel Dadoun since 2014, at 15 Thatcher Rd, Dayton NJ, in the company that at that time was Seldat. I lasted until 2018 in that company, during that time I had the opportunity to meet the person who is currently my boss, I honestly don't have bad memories either of the job or of my boss, I was able to realize that he is a very understanding person, he helps his neighbors, he helped his workers. I remember that every year he had a party for the employees, he gave many gifts. For me he is an excellent boss, and I say this because I have worked in other places and suffered humiliation and shouting.
