UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF NEW JERSEY

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, v. DANIEL DADOUN, Defendant.	ROBERT KIRSCH, U.S.D.J. Criminal. Number: 25-215 (RK) ELECTRONICALLY FILED

(proposed) TURNOVER ORDER

WHEREAS this Court entered a Judgment, dated September 22, 2025, which, among other things, required Defendant Daniel Dadoun (Defendant) to pay a mandatory Special Assessment in the amount of $200.00 and to make Restitution in the amount of $3,239,773.43, interest waived, to the victims;

AND WHEREAS the Court ordered that the Special Assessment and Restitution were "due immediately";

AND WHEREAS a Special Assessment and Restitution balance of approximately $3,239,973.43, remained unpaid as of February 13, 2026;

AND WHEREAS pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3613(c), entry of final judgment created a lien on all of Defendant's property and rights to property;

AND WHEREAS the United States may use any authorized federal or state procedure to enforce the judgment. 18 U.S.C. § 3613(a), (f);

AND WHEREAS as of February 10, 2026, the Defendant had a Bureau of Prisons (BOP)-Inmate Trust Account (also known as: Inmate Commissary Account) with an approximate balance of $1,706.85;

IT IS on this ____ day of _____ 2026,

ORDERED that the BOP remit to the Clerk for the District of New Jersey, 402 East State Street, Room 2020, Trenton, New Jersey 08608, the amount of _____ from the balance that is currently held in the BOP Inmate Trust Account for the inmate Daniel Dadoun, Register Number: 86374-510, at the Federal Correctional Institution-Fort Dix at Joint Base Middle, New Jersey, Those funds shall be applied to the defendant's outstanding Special Assessment and Restitution balances and for distribution to the victims owed Restitution. Defendant shall be credited with the amount of that payment to his outstanding Special Assessment and Restitution Order.

_____

ROBERT KIRSCH
United States District Judge