UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
EASTERN DISTRICT OF TENNESSEE
GREENEVILLE DIVISION

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,	)
	)
v.	)	2:18-CR-25
	)	JUDGE REEVES
LESLIE BETHEA	)

PROTECTIVE ORDER FOR DISCOVERY DISCLOSURE

The United States of America, by and through the United States Attorney for the Eastern District of Tennessee, has filed a motion for protective order [Doc. 9] pursuant to Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 16(d), to limit the further disclosure of discovery materials containing confidential information provided to defense counsel in this case. The motion [Doc. 9] is GRANTED as it appears to the Court as follows:

1. The documents to be provided as discovery and in preparation for trial in this case include electronic copies of documents which contain confidential information protected by court rule, Rule 49.1 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure, including dates of birth, home addresses, social security numbers, financial records, and documents containing other personal identifying information. The documents may also Jencks Act material, and future disclosures of discovery in this case may contain grand jury material and/or Brady/Giglio material. Pursuant to the Court's order in United States v. Gerald Horner, Case No. 2:12-CR-105, Document 108, the United States will provide the discovery materials un-redacted.

THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, pursuant to Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 16(d) that:

1. Before defense counsel disseminates or otherwise discloses to any person, including the attorney's client, any discovery material or other information that contains confidential information (such as that which is referenced in Rule 49.1 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure) and/or early Jenck's Act materials made available to the defense buy not yet required to be disclosed under Rule 16, the attorney shall redact that information from copies, and shall not otherwise disclose that confidential or personal identifying information, and shall not disseminate un-redacted physical copies of early Jenck's Act material. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the attorney may provide un-redacted copies or otherwise disclose such information to investigators or experts retained by the attorney, although the attorney shall unequivocally instruct those individuals that they are no less subject to this protective order than is the attorney.

2. If the attorney believes it necessary to furnish un-redacted copies of discovery to anyone else, or to otherwise disclose confidential or personal identifying information as described in Rule 49.1 of the Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure to any other person, the attorney must prior to such disclosure request Court permission to do so and only after a hearing to which the United States shall be a party.

SO ORDERED:

s/Clifton L. Corker
United States Magistrate Judge