To whom it may Concern,

Tamir Pratt is a very good worker for my company where he takes care of mental and disable clients he has been working for the company of Rem Sevita health for a little over a year now and has been a very responsible and respectful employee. He great with the clients and staff and prefer to keep him as an employee for years to come.

Thomas McCallister (Program Director)