UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF WEST VIRGINIA
AT CHARLESTON

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

v. CRIMINAL ACTION NO. 2:23-00123

SEAN PATRICK BOYD, JR.

O R D E R

The Probation Officer, via email to the court on December 18, 2023, has requested a two-week continuance of all sentencing deadlines inasmuch as the Probation Officer has just received all necessary discovery documents from the Government.

For the reason set forth above, it is ORDERED that the sentencing hearing and deadlines set forth in the Order entered on November 22, 2023, be, and they hereby are, continued as follows: the Probation Department of this court shall conduct a presentence investigation of the defendant and disclose the presentence report to the defendant and to counsel by January 10, 2024; counsel shall communicate to the Probation Department by January 24, 2024, any objections to the presentence report; the presentence report, together with an addendum setting forth any unresolved objections, shall be submitted to the court by February 7, 2024; and the sentencing hearing previously scheduled for February 7, 2024, is continued until 1:30 p.m. on February 21, 2024.

Unless otherwise ordered, the probation officer is directed not to disclose the probation officer's sentencing recommendation except to the court.

It is ORDERED that the government and the defendant may file a sentencing memorandum addressing the sentencing factors set forth in 18 U.S.C. § 3553(a) on or before February 14, 2024.

The defendant remains on the same bond with the same terms and conditions as heretofore.

The Clerk is directed to forward copies of this order to the defendant, all counsel of record, the United States Probation Department, and the United States Marshal.

DATED: December 18, 2023

John T. Copenhaver, Jr.
Senior United States District Judge
