UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT

FOR THE DISTRICT OF IDAHO

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

vs.

ERIC J. O'NEIL,

Defendant.

Case No. CR 22-0153-SDCN

INDICTMENT

18 U.S.C. § 981(a)(1)(C)

18 U.S.C. § 982(a)(2)

18 U.S.C. § 1344

28 U.S.C. § 2461(c)

INTRODUCTION

The Grand Jury charges:

At all times relevant to this Indictment:

1. The Defendant, ERIC J. O'NEIL ("O'NEIL"), was a resident of White Plains, New York.

2. O'NEIL owned and controlled Accountant R Us Inc., a New York-based business. Accountant R Us Inc. was incorporated in 2013 and was issued an Employer Identification Number ("EIN") by the Internal Revenue Service ("IRS").

The U.S. Small Business Administration

3. The United States Small Business Administration ("SBA") was an executive-branch agency of the United States government that provided support to entrepreneurs and small businesses. The mission of the SBA was to maintain and strengthen the nation's economy by enabling the establishment and viability of small businesses and by assisting in the economic recovery of communities after disasters.

The Paycheck Protection Program

4. The Coronavirus Aid, Relief, and Economic Security ("CARES") Act was a federal law enacted in or around March 2020 to provide emergency financial assistance to Americans suffering economic harm related to the COVID-19 pandemic. One form of relief provided by the CARES Act was the authorization of forgivable loans to small businesses for job retention and certain other expenses, through a program called the Paycheck Protection Program ("PPP").

5. To obtain a PPP loan, a qualifying business was required to submit a PPP loan application, which was signed by an authorized representative of the business. The PPP loan application required the business (through its authorized representative) to acknowledge the program rules and make certain affirmative certifications to be eligible to obtain the PPP loan. In the PPP loan application, the small business (through its authorized representative) was required to state, among other things, its: (a) average monthly payroll expenses; and (b) number of employees. These figures were used to calculate the amount of money the business was eligible to receive under the PPP. In addition, businesses applying for a PPP loan were required to provide documentation showing payroll expenses. To qualify for a PPP loan, every application was also required to certify that the business seeking the loan “was in operation on February 15, 2020, and had employees for whom it paid salaries and payroll taxes or paid independent contractors, as reported on Form(s) 1099-MISC.”

6. A PPP loan application was processed by a participating lender. If a PPP loan application was approved, the participating lender funded the loan using its own monies, which was one hundred percent guaranteed by the SBA. Data from the application, including information about the borrower, the total amount of the loan, and the listed number of employees, was transmitted by the lender to the SBA in the course of processing the loan.

7. PPP loan proceeds were required to be used on certain permissible business-related expenses, including payroll costs, mortgage interest, rent, and utilities. Under the applicable PPP rules and guidance, the interest and principal on the loan were eligible for forgiveness if the business used the loan proceeds on these expense items within a designated period of time and used at least a certain portion of the loan towards payroll expenses.

Relevant Financial Institutions

8. Lender-1 was a financial institution based in Boise, Idaho that participated as a lender in the SBA’s PPP loan program.

Overview of the Scheme to Defraud

9. Beginning in or around March 2021, and continuing until at least in or around April 2021, in the District of Idaho and elsewhere, the Defendant, ERIC J. O’NEIL (“O’NEIL”), together with others known and unknown to the Grand Jury, did execute, and attempt to execute, a scheme and artifice to defraud Lender-1 in connection with a fraudulent PPP loan application submitted on or about March 25, 2021 seeking a $373,201 loan for Accountant R Us Inc. (the “PPP Loan Application”).

Purpose of the Scheme to Defraud

10. It was the purpose of the scheme for O’NEIL to unjustly enrich himself, and others, by fraudulently obtaining a PPP loan through false pretenses, representations, and promises, and to conceal the scheme.

Manner and Means of the Scheme to Defraud

11. It was part of O’NEIL’s fraudulent scheme to submit the PPP Loan Application on behalf of Accountant R Us Inc. (“Accountant R Us”) containing false information concerning, among other things, the number of employees and its monthly payroll, certifications about the business, and intended use for the funds.

12. In furtherance of the scheme, O’NEIL, together with others known and unknown to the Grand Jury, falsely certified on the PPP Loan Application that Accountant R Us was in operation on February 15, 2020, and had employees for whom it paid salaries and payroll taxes or paid independent contractors, as reported on Form(s) 1099-MISC. However, in fact, and as O’NEIL knew, Accountant R Us had no employees, paid no salaries, and paid no payroll taxes. O’NEIL further certified that the PPP loan funds would be used only for business-related expenses, including to retain workers and cover payroll expenses, and to make mortgage interest payments, lease payments, and/or utility payments. In fact, however, O’NEIL did not intend to use the funds for these purposes because Accountant R Us had no employees, payroll expenses, mortgage interest, lease, or utility bills.

13. In furtherance of the scheme, O'NEIL, together with others known and unknown to the Grand Jury, submitted, and caused to be submitted, fraudulent IRS Forms 941 and 1120 to Lender-1 for the 2019 tax year. The IRS Forms 941 and 1120 contained materially false and fraudulent information concerning total income and salaries and wages for Accountant R Us as it did not appear to have any legitimate business operations or employees in 2019, and the Forms 941 and 1120 were never filed with the IRS.

14. In furtherance of the scheme, O'NEIL, together with others known and unknown to the Grand Jury, submitted, and caused to be submitted, a fake payroll log in support of the PPP Loan Application to Lender-1. Specifically, O'NEIL sent Lender-1 a purported Accountant R Us 2019 payroll log. The log listed 22 employees, including O'NEIL, and showed their total gross salary. The purported payroll log contained the social security numbers as well as the federal and state tax withholdings for each employee. The purported payroll log contained materially false and fraudulent information concerning total income and salaries and wages for Accountant R Us as it did not appear to have any legitimate business operations or employees in 2019.

15. In furtherance of the scheme, O'NEIL, together with others known and unknown to the Grand Jury, submitted, and caused to be submitted, fraudulent profit and loss statements for Accountant R Us in support of the PPP Loan Application to Lender-1. A profit and loss statement for the second quarter of 2019 falsely claimed Accountant R Us earned $702,500 in gross profit and paid $447,842 in wages. A profit and loss statement for the second quarter of 2020 falsely claimed Accountant R Us earned $516,875 in gross profit and paid $447,842 in wages. In fact, however, Accountant R Us did not appear to have any legitimate business operations or employees in 2019 and 2020.
