FINDING

There being a finding/verdict of GUILTY, defendant has been convicted as charged of the offense(s) of: Mail Fraud, in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 1341, as charged in Count One (1) of the Information.

JUDGMENT AND PROB/
COMM ORDER

The Court asked whether there was any reason why judgment should not be pronounced. Because no sufficient cause to the contrary was shown, or appeared to the Court, the Court adjudged the defendant guilty as charged and convicted and ordered that: Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that the defendant, Gabriela Llerenas, is hereby committed to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons to be imprisoned for a term of: SIXTY-THREE (63) MONTHS on Count One (1) of the Information.

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $ 100, which is due immediately. Any unpaid balance shall be due during the period of imprisonment, at the rate of not less than $25 per quarter, and pursuant to the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program.

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay restitution in the total amount of $4,298,093 pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3663A.

The amount of restitution ordered shall be paid as follows:

USA vs. Gabriela Llerenas

Docket No.: EDCR 21-00187-JWH

Restitution shall be due during the period of imprisonment, at the rate of not less than $25 per quarter, and pursuant to the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program. If any amount of the restitution remains unpaid after release from custody, nominal monthly payments of at least 10% of defendant's gross monthly income but not less than $ 100, whichever is greater, shall be made during the period of supervised release and shall begin 90 days after the commencement of supervision. Nominal restitution payments are ordered as the Court finds that the defendant's economic circumstances do not allow for either immediate or future payment of the amount ordered.

Pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(f)(3)(A), interest on the restitution ordered is waived because the defendant does not have the ability to pay interest. Payments may be subject to penalties for default and delinquency pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(g).

The defendant shall comply with Second Amended General Order No. 20-04.

Pursuant to Guideline § 5E1.2(a), all fines are waived as the Court finds that the defendant has established that she is unable to pay and is not likely to become able to pay any fine.

The Court recommends that the defendant be considered for participation in the Bureau of Prison's Residential Drug Abuse Program (RDAP). The Court recommends that the Bureau of Prisons conduct a mental health evaluation of the defendant and provide all necessary treatment.¹

Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that the defendant, Gabriela Llerenas, is hereby committed on Count One (1) of the Indictment to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons for a term of SIXTY-THREE (63) months.

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be placed on supervised release for a term of 3 years under the following terms and conditions:

1. The defendant shall comply with the rules and regulations of the United States Probation & Pretrial Services Office and Second Amended General Order 20-04, including the conditions of probation and supervised release set forth in Section III of Second Amended General Order 20-04.
2. During the period of community supervision, the defendant shall pay the special assessment and restitution in accordance with this judgment's orders pertaining to such payment.
3. The defendant shall cooperate in the collection of a DNA sample from the defendant.
4. The defendant shall refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. The defendant shall submit to one drug test within 15 days of release from custody and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter, not to exceed eight tests per month, as directed by the Probation Officer.
5. The defendant shall participate in an outpatient substance abuse treatment and counseling program that includes urinalysis, breath or sweat patch testing, as directed by the Probation Officer. The defendant shall abstain from using alcohol and illicit drugs, and from abusing prescription medications during the period of supervision.
6. The defendant shall reside at, participate in, and successfully complete a residential substance abuse treatment and counseling program approved by the United States Probation & Pretrial Services Office, that includes testing to determine whether the defendant has reverted to the use of drugs or alcohol; and the defendant shall observe the rules of that facility.
7. As directed by the Probation Officer, the defendant shall pay all or part of the costs of the Court-ordered treatment to the aftercare contractors during the period of community supervision. The defendant shall provide payment and proof of payment as directed by the Probation Officer. If the defendant has no ability to pay, no payment shall be required.
8. The defendant shall not obtain or possess any driver's license, Social Security number, birth certificate, passport, or any other form of identification in any name, other than the defendant's true legal name, nor shall the defendant use, any name other than the defendant's true legal name without the prior written approval of the Probation Officer.

¹ The discussion of these programs is not intended to be part of the Court's decision on whether to sentence the defendant to incarceration or on the length of the term to be imposed but is merely to provide an indication of possible opportunities for rehabilitation within the prison system.

9. The defendant shall not engage, as whole or partial owner, consultant, employee, or volunteer for, or otherwise participate, in any business involving preparation, or advise in the preparation of, any federal or state income tax returns or other financial or account document for any third parties, other than for herself and her legal spouse, without the express approval of the Probation Officer prior to engaging in such employment. Further, the defendant shall show proof to the Probation Officer of compliance with this order.
10. The defendant shall not be employed in any position that requires licensing or certification by any local, state, or federal agency without the prior written approval of the Probation Officer.
11. The defendant shall apply all monies received from income tax refunds, lottery winnings, inheritance, judgments, and any other financial gains to the Court-ordered financial obligation.
12. The defendant shall submit the defendant's person, property, house, residence, vehicle, papers, computers, cell phones, other electronic communications or data storage devices or media, email accounts, social media accounts, cloud storage accounts, or other areas under the defendant's control, to a search conducted by a United States Probation Officer or law enforcement officer. Failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation. The defendant shall warn any other occupants that the premises may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition. Any search pursuant to this condition will be conducted at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner upon reasonable suspicion that the defendant has violated a condition of her supervision and that the areas to be searched contain evidence of this violation.

The Court authorizes the Probation & Pretrial Services Office to disclose the Presentence Report to the substance abuse treatment provider to facilitate the defendant's treatment for narcotic addiction or drug dependency. Further redisclosure of the Presentence Report by the treatment provider is prohibited without the consent of the sentencing judge.

It is further ordered that the defendant surrender herself to the institution designated by the Bureau of Prisons at or before 12:00 noon, on April 18, 2022. In the absence of such designation, the defendant shall report on or before 12:00 noon, on April 18, 2022, to the United States Marshal located at the First Street U.S. Courthouse 350 W. First Street, Suite 3001, Los Angeles, CA 90012.

Defendant is reminded that failure to self-surrender will result in the issuance of a bench warrant.

Bond is exonerated upon self-surrender.

The defendant was informed of her right to appeal.

In addition to the special conditions of supervision imposed above, it is hereby ordered that the Standard Conditions of Probation and Supervised Release within this judgment be imposed. The Court may change the conditions of supervision, reduce or extend the period of supervision, and at any time during the supervision period or within the maximum period permitted by law, may issue a warrant and revoke supervision for a violation occurring during the supervision period.
