SUPERVISED RELEASE

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be on supervised release for a total term of Three (3) years as to Count One of the Indictment. The defendant shall comply with the following special conditions:

1. Upon release from the custodial portion of the Court's sentence, the defendant shall comply with the conditions of home detention for a period not to exceed 36 months. During this time, the defendant shall remain at his place of residence except for activities specifically approved by his supervising probation officer. If violations occur the defendant may be placed in a lock down status (restricted to his residence at all times) for one or more days upon order of the Court. At the direction of his supervising probation officer, the defendant shall wear an electronic monitoring device and follow electronic monitoring procedures as approved by his supervising probation officer. The defendant may be required to pay the cost of electronic monitoring under the direction of his supervising probation officer.
2. The defendant shall not commit another federal, state, or local crime.
3. The defendant shall not possess any firearms or other dangerous weapons.
4. Pursuant to the Violent Crime Control and Law Enforcement Act of 1996, the defendant shall not illegally possess or unlawfully use any controlled substance.
5. The defendant is to participate in a program of testing to include not more than six urinalysis screens per month together with residential or outpatient treatment for drug and/or alcohol abuse, as approved by his supervising probation officer, until such time as he is released from such program. The defendant shall pay the cost of this program under the direction of his supervising probation officer. The defendant is to refrain from the excessive use of alcohol, defined as having a blood alcohol concentration of greater than .08, throughout the supervised release term.
6. The defendant must reside at a residence approved by his supervising probation officer.
7. The defendant shall notify his supervising probation officer at least ten days prior to any change in the place of his residence or employment. When such notification is not possible, the defendant shall notify his supervising probation officer within 72 hours of the change.
8. The defendant shall notify his supervising probation officer within 72 hours of being arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer.
9. The defendant shall follow the reasonable instructions of his supervising probation officer and answer all inquiries of such officer subject to the defendant's Fifth Amendment right against self-incrimination.
10. The defendant shall permit his supervising probation officer to visit him at reasonable times at home, or such other location as may be mutually agreed upon and shall permit confiscation of any contraband observed in plain view by his supervising probation officer.

Case Number: 23-CR-77-4

11. The defendant shall not associate with any persons known by him to be engaged or planning to be engaged in criminal activity. "Associate" as used here means to communicate, meet, reside, socialize, or otherwise interact with such person.
12. The defendant shall not knowingly leave the judicial district to which he has been released without the permission of the Court or his supervising probation officer.
13. The defendant shall not enter into any agreement to act as an informer or special agent of a law enforcement agency without the prior approval of the Court.
14. The defendant is to pay the restitution that the Court has ordered at a rate of not less than $100.00 per month. Any interest on the restitution is waived. The defendant will also apply 100 percent of any annual federal and/or state tax refund(s) toward the payment of any restitution balance. The defendant shall not change exemptions claimed for either federal or state income tax purposes without prior notice to his supervising probation officer.
15. The defendant shall not open any new lines of credit, which includes the leasing of any vehicle or property, or use existing credit resources without the prior approval of his supervising probation officer. After the defendant's Court-ordered financial obligations have been fully satisfied, this condition will no longer remain in effect.
16. The defendant is to provide access to all financial information requested by his supervising probation officer including, but not limited to, copies of all federal and state income tax returns. All tax returns shall be filed in a timely manner. The defendant shall also submit monthly financial reports to his supervising probation officer.
17. The defendant shall participate in a Cognitive Intervention Program as may become available under the direction of his supervising probation officer. Subject to the defendant's ability to pay, he shall pay the cost of such program under the direction of his supervising probation officer.
18. The defendant shall submit his person, property, residence, office, and/or any electronic communication or data storage device, including a computer as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 1030(e)(1), to a search conducted at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner by his supervising probation officer. Failure to submit to a search may constitute grounds for revocation of the defendant's term of supervised release. The defendant shall notify any other occupants that the premises may be subject to a search pursuant to this condition. Any search may be conducted only when reasonable suspicion exists that the defendant has violated the conditions of his supervised release and that the areas to be searched may contain evidence of such violation(s).

In accordance with the recent decisions by the United States Court of Appeals for the Seventh Circuit in United States v. Siegel, 753 F.3d 705 (7th Cir. 2014), United States v. Thompson, 777 F.3d 368 (7th Cir. 2015), United States v. Kappes, 782 F.3d 828 (7th Cir. 2015), United States v. Downs, 784 F.3d 1180 (7th Cir. 2015), United States v. Poulin, 809 F.3d 924 (7th Cir. 2016), United States v. Ortiz, 817 F.3d 1180 (7th Cir. 2016), United States v. Hill, 818 F.3d 342 (7th Cir. 2016), and their progeny, the Court withheld imposition of any additional conditions of supervised release. The Court concluded

CRIMINAL MONETARY PENALTIES

The defendant shall pay the following total criminal monetary penalties in accordance with the schedule of payments set forth on Sheet 6.

	Special Assessment	Fine	Restitution
Totals:	$100.00	Waived	$517,236.00

FINE

Based upon the defendant's limited financial resources, the Court determines that the defendant does not have the financial ability to pay a fine within the guidelines range. The Court determines that the defendant does not have the financial ability to pay the interest on the fine, costs of incarceration, costs of community confinement, and supervision, and therefore waives the interest on the fine, costs of incarceration, costs of community confinement, and supervision in this case.

A waiver of the cost of community confinement does not preclude the Bureau of Prisons from imposing a subsistence fee of up to twenty-five percent (25%) of gross income, based on ability to pay, for any portion of the sentence spent in a community correctional facility.

RESTITUTION

The defendant shall pay restitution in the amount listed below. Interest on the restitution is waived. Restitution payments shall be made to the Clerk of the Court—362 U.S. Courthouse, 517 E. Wisconsin Avenue, Milwaukee, Wisconsin 53202—who shall disburse restitution payments to the following payees:

SCHEDULE OF PAYMENTS

Payments shall be applied in the following order: (1) assessment, and (2) restitution.

Special instructions regarding the payment of criminal monetary penalties:

The Court considers the defendant's participation in the Federal Bureau of Prisons Inmate Financial Responsibility Program to be a necessary component of the repayment of the court-imposed financial obligations. Payments are to apply first to the special assessment and then to the restitution ordered by the Court until paid in full.

If this judgment imposes a period of imprisonment, payment of the criminal monetary penalties shall be due during the period of imprisonment. All criminal monetary penalty payments, except those payments made through the Bureau of Prisons Inmate Financial Responsibility Program are to be made as directed by the Court, the defendant's supervising probation officer, or the United States Attorney.
