SUPERVISED RELEASE

Upon release from imprisonment, you will be on supervised release for a term of three (3) years.

MANDATORY CONDITIONS

1. You must not commit another federal, state or local crime.
2. You must not unlawfully possess or use a controlled substance.
 - ☒ You must submit to one drug test within 15 days of release and at least two tests within one year from the commencement of supervision. (check if applicable)
 - ☐ The above drug testing condition is suspended based on the court's determination that the defendant poses a low risk of future substance abuse. (check if applicable)
3. ☐ You must make restitution in accordance with 18 U.S.C. §§ 3363 and 3363A or any other statute authorizing a sentence of restitution. (check if applicable)
4. ☐ You must cooperate in the collection of DNA as directed by the probation officer. (check if applicable)
5. ☐ You must comply with the requirements of the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act (34 U.S.C. § 20901, et seq.) as directed by the probation officer, the Bureau of Prisons, or any state sex offender registration agency in the location where you reside, work, are a student, or were convicted of a qualifying offense. (check if applicable)
6. ☐ You must participate in an approved program for domestic violence. (check if applicable)

You must comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by this court as well as with any other conditions on the attached pages.

DEFENDANT: ROBERT J. SOLBERGCASE NUMBER: 22-CR-247

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

As part of your supervised release, you must comply with the following standard conditions of supervision. These conditions are imposed because they establish the basic expectations for your behavior while on supervision and identify the minimum tools needed by probation officers to keep informed, report to the court about, and bring about improvements in your conduct and condition.

1. You shall report to the probation office in the district to which you are released within 72 hours of your release from the custody of the Bureau of Prisons and shall report to the probation officer in a manner and frequency as reasonably directed by the Court or probation officer.
2. You shall not leave the State of Wisconsin without permission of the court or probation officer.
3. You shall answer truthfully all inquiries by the probation officer, subject to your Fifth Amendment right against self-incrimination, and follow the reasonable instructions of the probation officer.
4. You shall use your best efforts to find and hold lawful employment, unless excused by the probation officer for schooling, training, or other acceptable reasons.
5. You shall notify the probation officer at least ten days prior to any change in your place of residence or employment. When such notification is not possible, you shall notify the probation officer within 72 hours of the change.
6. You shall not knowingly go to places or enter buildings where controlled substances are unlawfully sold, used, distributed, or administered.
7. You shall not associate with any persons known by you to be engaged or planning to be engaged in criminal activity. "Associate," as used here, means reside with or regularly socialize with such person.
8. You shall permit a probation officer to visit you at reasonable times at home and shall permit confiscation of any contraband observed in plain view of the probation officer.
9. You shall notify the probation officer within 72 hours of being arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer.
10. You shall not enter into any agreement to act as an informer or a special agent of a law enforcement agency without the permission of the court.

DEFENDANT: ROBERT J. SOLBERGCASE NUMBER: 22-CR-247*SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

1. The defendant is to pay the restitution as directed. If he does not pay it in full at the time of sentencing, he should pay restitution at a rate of not less than $100.00 per month or 10% of net monthly earnings, whichever is greater. The defendant will also apply 100 percent of any annual federal and/or state income tax refund toward payment of any restitution and fine balance. The defendant shall not change exemptions claimed for either federal or state income tax purposes without prior notice to his probation officer.
2. The defendant shall not open new lines of credit, which includes the leasing of any vehicle or other property or use existing credit resources without the prior approval of his supervising probation officer. After the defendant's court ordered financial obligations have been satisfied, this condition is no longer in effect.
3. The defendant is to provide access to all financial information requested by his supervising probation officer including, but not limited to, copies of all federal and state income tax returns. All tax returns shall be filed in a timely manner. The defendant shall also submit monthly financial reports to his probation officer. After the defendant's court ordered financial obligations have been satisfied, this condition is no longer in effect.
4. The defendant is not allowed to work at a tavern or patronize taverns or any establishments where alcohol is the principal item of sale and shall refrain from the use of all alcohol beverages throughout the term of supervision.
5. The defendant shall not hold employment having fiduciary responsibilities without first notifying the employer of his conviction, or self-employment involving the buying, selling, or trading of vehicles without approval of his probation officer.
