Petition for Action on Supervised Release

COMES NOW Jay Kellum, U.S. Probation Officer of the court, presenting a petition for modification of the Judgment and Commitment Order of Dekwaan Leguez Boone, who, upon an earlier plea of guilty to Count 3 – Brandishing Firearms During and in Relation to a Crime of Violence and Aiding and Abetting, in violation of 18 U.S.C. §§ 924(c)(1)(A) and 2, and Count 6 – Possession of a Firearm by a Felon, in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 922(g)(1) and 924(a)(2), was sentenced by the Honorable Richard E. Myers II, Chief United States District Judge, on March 11, 2022, to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons for a term of 51 months. It was further ordered that upon release from imprisonment the defendant be placed on supervised release for the period of four years. Dekwaan Leguez Boone was released from custody on February 28, 2025, at which time the term of supervised release commenced.

On December 15, 2025, a Violation Report was submitted to the court advising that on December 9, 2025, Boone tested positive for marijuana use. It was also advised that since April 28, 2025, the defendant had made one payment of $150 and was in arrears five (5 months) totaling $250. The court agreed to continue supervision.

At sentencing, the defendant was ordered to abide by mandatory, standard, and special conditions of supervision. Pursuant to Section 5D1.4 of the Federal Sentencing Guidelines, the United States Probation Office has conducted an individualized assessment, taking the following factors into consideration: 18 U.S.C. §§ 3583(c) and (e)(2). Based on this assessment, it is recommended that the defendant be subject to the mandatory conditions that were imposed at sentencing, the standard conditions, as referenced in the current standing order for the Eastern District of North Carolina, and the below special conditions, as well as any other conditions previously imposed by means of prior court action during the term of supervision.

IT IS THE ORDER OF THE COURT THAT YOU SHALL COMPLY WITH THE FOLLOWING STANDARD CONDITIONS:

1. You must report to the probation office in the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside within 72 hours of release from imprisonment, unless the probation officer instructs you to report to a different probation office or within a different time frame.
2. After initially reporting to the probation office, you will receive instructions from the court or the probation officer about how and when you must report to the probation officer, and you must report to the probation officer as instructed.

If you plan to change where you live or anything about your living arrangements (such as the people you live with), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
6. You must allow the probation officer to visit you at any time at your home or elsewhere, and you must permit the probation officer to take any items prohibited by the conditions of supervision that he or she observes in plain view.

7. You must work full time (at least 30 hours per week) at a lawful type of employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you do not have full-time employment, you must try to find full-time employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you plan to change where you work or anything about work (such as position or job responsibilities), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer at least 10 days in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.

9. If you are arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours.
10. You must not own, possess, or have access to a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or dangerous weapon (i.e., anything that was designed, or was modified for, the specific purpose of causing bodily injury or death to another person such as nunchakus or tasers).
11. You must not act or make any agreement with a law enforcement agency to act as a confidential human source or informant without first getting the permission of the court.
12. The probation officer may contact the person and confirm that you have notified the person about the risk.
13. You must follow the instructions of the probation officer related to the conditions of supervision.

IT IS THE FURTHER ORDER OF THE COURT THAT YOU SHALL COMPLY WITH THE FOLLOWING SPECIAL CONDITIONS:

1. The defendant shall not incur new credit charges or open additional lines of credit without approval of the probation office.

2. The defendant shall provide the probation office with access to any requested financial information.

3. The defendant shall participate as directed in a program approved by the probation office for the treatment of narcotic addiction, drug dependency, or alcohol dependency which will include urinalysis testing or other drug detection measures and may require residence or participation in a residential treatment facility.

4. The defendant shall participate in a program of mental health treatment, as directed by the probation office.

5. The defendant shall submit to a search, at any time, with or without a warrant, and by any law enforcement or probation officer, of the defendant's person and any property, house, residence, vehicle, and effects upon reasonable suspicion concerning a violation of a condition of supervised release or unlawful conduct by the defendant, or by any probation officer in the lawful discharge of the officer's supervision functions.

RESPECTFULLY PRESENTING PETITION FOR ACTION OF COURT FOR CAUSE AS FOLLOWS:

Based on the individualized assessment of this case, it is respectfully recommended that the defendant comply with the above conditions.

Additionally, the defendant possessed marijuana, as evidenced by a test conducted on March 24, 2026, which yielded positive results for marijuana. The defendant is engaged in treatment services at Addiction Services of Coastal Carolina, and he will continue to participate in the Surprise Urinalysis Program.

Furthermore, on December 17, 2025, the Court approved for Boone's payment plan to be restarted on January 15, 2026, at the rate of $50 per month. To date, he has made no payments since his payment plan restarted and is currently in arrears of $200. He will be encouraged to obtain gainful employment and become compliant with his payment agreement.

At this time, it is respectfully recommended that the term of supervision be continued without modification. Should future violations occur, the court will be notified.

The defendant signed a Waiver of Hearing acknowledging and agreeing to the standard and special conditions as outlined above.

PRAYING THAT THE COURT WILL ORDER the defendant is continued under supervision and subject to the above listed conditions of supervision. To the extent that any of these conditions vary from those imposed at the time of sentencing, based on the individualized assessment conducted, these conditions replace those originally imposed. In consultation with the probation officer the court has conducted an individualized assessment and except as herein modified, the judgment shall remain in full force and effect.
