PLEA AGREEMENT

The Government and the defendant, REGINALD DEWAYNE RHODES, hereby acknowledge the following plea agreement in this case:

PLEA

The defendant agrees to (i) plead guilty to COUNT ONE of the Indictment filed in the above-numbered and -captioned matter; (ii), pay restitution as determined by the Court; and (iii) waive certain rights to direct appeal and collateral attack as outlined in section IV of this agreement. In exchange, the United States Attorney, acting on behalf of the Government and through the undersigned Assistant United States Attorney, agrees to recommend the disposition specified below, subject to the conditions in section VII.

TERMS OF THE AGREEMENT

I. MAXIMUM PUNISHMENT

The defendant understands that the maximum statutory punishment that may be imposed for the crime of Wire Fraud, in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 1343, as charged in Count One is:

- A. Imprisonment for not more than 20 years;
- B. A fine of not more than $250,000.00, or;
- C. Both (a and b);
- D. Supervised release of not more than three years; and
- E. Special Assessment Fee of $100 per count.

II. FACTUAL BASIS FOR PLEA

The Government is prepared to prove, at a minimum, the following facts at the trial of this case:

A. Overview of the Paycheck Protection Program (PPP)

The Coronavirus Aid, Relief, and Economic Security (“CARES”) Act was enacted in March 2020 and designed to provide emergency financial assistance to Americans suffering from the economic effects of the COVID-19 pandemic. Among other initiatives, the CARES Act, through the PPP, authorized up to $349 billion in potentially forgivable loans to small business for payroll, job retention, mortgage interest, and certain other applicable expenses. Each loan draw had a specific application process and requirements.

The Small Business Administration (SBA) oversaw the PPP and fully guaranteed every legitimate PPP loan. The SBA would forgive PPP loans if all employee retention criteria were met, and the funds were used for eligible expenses within a designated period as set forth in the PPP. The individual PPP loans, however, were issued by private, SBA-approved lenders who received and processed the PPP applications. Thus, the loans were made from the lenders' own funds.

To apply for a PPP loan, a qualifying business was required to submit a PPP loan application to an SBA-approved lender. In the PPP loan application (SBA Form 2483), the small business (through its authorized representative) had to verify its average monthly payroll and the total number of employees. These figures were used to calculate the amount of money the business was eligible to receive under the PPP. The maximum PPP loan amount a business could receive was 2.5 times the business's average monthly payroll costs, up to $10 million.

The borrower was required to make several affirmative certifications as part of the PPP application process, including: (1) the business was in operation on February 15, 2020 and has employees for whom it paid salaries and payroll taxes or paid independent contractors, (2) the funds would be used to retain workers and otherwise comply with the fund eligibility restrictions, and (3) the information provided in the application and supporting documentation was true and accurate in all material aspects.

B. Overview of the Scheme

Between April and June 2021, the defendant applied for and had deposited into his bank account $11,770 in fraudulently obtained PPP loan funds. The defendant filed or caused to be filed a PPP loan application with material misrepresentations and supported by fraudulent bank records. Based on those material misrepresentations, on or about June 4, 2021, and SBA-approved lender headquartered in Florida wired $11,770 into the defendant's bank account in Alabama. The wire constituted a wire communication traveling in interstate commerce.

The defendant's PPP loan application was submitted on or about April 29, 2021, and included the defendant's social security number, date of birth, personal address, and a copy of his Alabama nondriver identification card. The application also included a self-administered photo ("selfie") to further confirm his identity and listed a contact email address of reginaldrhodes1@yahoo.com, which is an email account subscribed to in the defendant's name.

The application claimed defendant had established a carpet cleaning business in January 2020 for which he earned $56,500 in 2020 during the pandemic. To support these claims, the application included a 2020 IRS Schedule C Form 1040 (Profit or Loss from Business) claiming the defendant earned $74,000 in gross receipts in 2020. The application also included a purported February 2020 bank statement listing a $1,060.92 deposit for "PAYROLL." PPP loan applicants would often include February 2020 bank statements to prove their business was a going concern as of February 15, 2020, a requirement to receive a PPP loan. Bank records prove the defendant submitted a fraudulent February 2020 bank statement. Given the fraudulent bank statement, the defendant therefore also materially misrepresented on his loan application that he was eligible to receive the PPP loan and that the information provided in the application and all supporting documentation was true and accurate.

Furthermore, the defendant, like all PPP loan applicants, was required to indicate whether he was presently subject to any criminal charges. The SBA loan application form clearly states that if an applicant answers "Yes" to that question the SBA will deny the loan application. The defendant answered "No" to that question, however, he was arrested in Tuscaloosa County in December 2020 on unrelated violent crime charges that remain pending. Therefore, the defendant made yet another material misrepresentation on his loan application.

On June 22, 2021, the defendant issued an $8,000 cashier's check in his name from the bank account into which he received the PPP loan.

The parties stipulate that for the purposes of sentencing the total foreseeable loss amount is greater than $6,500 and less than $15,000. The parties further stipulate that venue is appropriate in the Northern District of Alabama.

The defendant hereby stipulates that the facts stated above are substantially correct and that the Court can use these facts in calculating the defendant's sentence. The defendant further acknowledges that these facts do not constitute all the evidence of each and every act that the defendant and/or any co-conspirators may have committed.

III. RECOMMENDED SENTENCE

Subject to the limitations in section VII regarding subsequent conduct and pursuant to Fed. R. Crim. P. 11(c)(1)(B), the Government will recommend the following disposition:

- A. That the defendant be awarded a two (2) level reduction in the defendant's adjusted offense level, based upon the defendant's apparent prompt recognition and affirmative acceptance of personal responsibility for the defendant's criminal conduct. The Government agrees to make a motion pursuant to USSG §3E1.1(b) for an additional one-level decrease in recognition of the defendant's prompt notification to the Government of the intention to enter a plea of guilty. The Government may oppose any adjustment for acceptance of responsibility if the defendant: (1) fails to admit each and every item in the factual stipulation; (2) denies involvement in the offense; (3) gives conflicting statements about the defendant's involvement in the offense; (4) is untruthful with the Court, the Government, or the United States Probation Officer; (5) obstructs or attempts to obstruct justice prior to sentencing; (6) engages in any criminal conduct between the date of this agreement and the date of sentencing; or (7) attempts to withdraw the defendant's plea of guilty for any reason other than those expressly enumerated in the "Waiver of Right to Appeal and Post-Conviction Relief" section of this Plea Agreement;

- B. That the defendant be remanded to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons and incarcerated for a term consistent with the advisory United States Sentencing Guideline range as calculated by the Court at the time of sentencing;
- C. That following said term of imprisonment, the defendant be placed on supervised release for a period to be determined by the Court, subject to the Court's standard conditions of supervised release;
- D. That the defendant be required to pay restitution to all the victims of the defendant's crimes, specifically the United States Small Business Administration, in an amount not less than $11,770;
- E. That the defendant be required to pay a fine in accordance with the sentencing guidelines should the Court determine that the defendant has the ability to pay a fine, said amount due and owing as of the date sentence is pronounced, with any outstanding balance to be paid in full by the expiration of the term of supervised release; and,
- F. That the defendant pay a special assessment of $100.00, said amount due and owing as of the date sentence is pronounced.

IV. WAIVERS

A. STATUTE OF LIMITATIONS WAIVER

In consideration of the recommended disposition of this case, I, REGINALD DEWAYNE RHODES, hereby understand, acknowledge, and agree that if this plea agreement is set aside for any reason, I will not assert any defense based on any applicable statute of limitations or the Speedy Trial Act, 18 U.S.C. § 3161, et seq., that includes the passage of time from and including the date of this plea agreement until and including the date of entry of any order setting this plea agreement aside.

B. RIGHT TO APPEAL AND POST-CONVICTION RELIEF

In consideration of the recommended disposition of this case, I, REGINALD DEWAYNE RHODES, hereby waive and give up my right to appeal my conviction and/or sentence in this case, as well as any fines, restitution, and forfeiture orders, the Court might impose. Further, I waive and give up the right to challenge my conviction and/or sentence, any fines, restitution, forfeiture orders imposed or the manner in which my conviction and/or sentence, any fines, restitution, and forfeiture orders were determined in any post-conviction proceeding, including, but not limited to, a motion brought under 28 U.S.C. § 2255, and any argument that (1) the statute(s) to which I am pleading guilty is or are unconstitutional or (2) the admitted conduct does not fall within the scope of the statute(s).

The defendant reserves the right to contest in an appeal or post-conviction proceeding(s) the following:

1. Any sentence imposed in excess of the applicable statutory maximum sentence(s);
2. Any sentence imposed in excess of the Guidelines range determined by the Court at the time sentence is imposed; and
3. Ineffective assistance of counsel.

The defendant acknowledges that before giving up these rights, the defendant discussed the United States Sentencing Guidelines and their application to the defendant's case with the defendant's attorney, who explained them to the defendant's satisfaction. The defendant further acknowledges and understands that the Government retains its right to appeal where authorized by statute.

I, REGINALD DEWAYNE RHODES, hereby place my signature on the line directly below to signify that I fully understand the foregoing paragraphs, and that I am knowingly and voluntarily entering into this waiver.

REGINALD DEWAYNE RHODES

V. UNITED STATES SENTENCING GUIDELINES

The defendant's counsel has explained to the defendant, that in light of the United States Supreme Court's decision in United States v. Booker, the federal sentencing guidelines are advisory in nature. Sentencing is in the Court's discretion and is not required to be within the guideline range. The defendant agrees that, pursuant to this agreement, the Court may use facts it finds by a preponderance of the evidence to reach an advisory guideline range, and the defendant explicitly waives any right to have those facts found by a jury beyond a reasonable doubt.

VI. AGREEMENT NOT BINDING ON COURT

The defendant fully and completely understands and agrees that it is the Court's duty to impose sentence upon the defendant and that any sentence recommended by the Government is NOT BINDING UPON THE COURT, and that the Court is not required to accept the Government's recommendation. Further, the defendant understands that if the Court does not accept the Government's recommendation, the defendant does not have the right to withdraw the guilty plea.

VII. VOIDING OF AGREEMENT

The defendant understands that if the defendant (a) violates any federal, state, or local law or any condition of pretrial release after entering into this plea agreement, (b) moves the Court to accept a plea of guilty in accordance with, or pursuant to, the provisions of North Carolina v. Alford, 400 U.S. 25 (1970), (c) tenders a plea of nolo contendere to the charges, (d) violates any other term of this plea agreement, and/or (e) does or says anything that is inconsistent with the acceptance of responsibility, the plea agreement will become NULL and VOID at the election of the United States, and the United States will not be bound by any of the terms, conditions, or recommendations, express or implied, which are contained herein. Further, such election will not entitle the defendant to withdraw a previously entered plea.

VIII. OTHER DISTRICTS AND JURISDICTIONS

The defendant understands and agrees that this agreement DOES NOT BIND any other United States Attorney in any other district, or any other state or local authority.

IX. COLLECTION OF FINANCIAL OBLIGATION

To facilitate the collection of financial obligations to be imposed in connection with this prosecution, the defendant agrees to:

- fully disclose all assets in which the defendant has any interest or over which the defendant exercises control, directly or indirectly, including those held by a spouse, nominee or other third party;
- promptly submit a completed financial statement to the United States Attorney's Office, in a form that it provides and as it directs;
- identify all assets over which the defendant exercises or exercised control, directly or indirectly, within the past five years, or in which the defendant has or had during that time any financial interest;
- take all steps as requested by the Government to obtain from any other parties by any lawful means any records of assets owned at any time by the defendant;
- undergo any polygraph examination the Government may choose to administer concerning such assets and to provide and/or consent to the release of the defendant's tax returns for the previous five years.

The defendant further agrees that the above information, as well as any of the defendant's financial statements and disclosures, will be complete, accurate, and truthful. Finally, the defendant expressly authorizes the United States Attorney's Office to obtain a credit report on the defendant to evaluate the defendant's ability to satisfy any financial obligation imposed by the Court.

X. AGREEMENT REGARDING RELEVANT CONDUCT AND RESTITUTION

As part of the defendant's plea agreement, the defendant admits to the above facts associated with the charges and relevant conduct for any other acts. The defendant understands and agrees that the relevant conduct contained in the factual basis will be used by the Court to determine the defendant's range of punishment under the advisory sentencing guidelines. The defendant admits that all the crimes listed in the factual basis are part of the same acts, scheme, and course of conduct. This agreement is not meant, however, to prohibit the United States Probation Office or the Court from considering any other acts and factors, which may constitute or relate to relevant conduct. Additionally, if this agreement contains any provisions providing for the dismissal of any counts, the defendant agrees to pay any appropriate restitution to each of the separate and proximate victims related to those counts should there be any and waives objection to the inclusion of that restitution in any order issued by the Court.

XI. TAX, FORFEITURE AND OTHER CIVIL/ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEEDINGS

Unless otherwise specified herein, the defendant understands and acknowledges that this agreement does not apply to or in any way limit any pending or prospective proceedings related to the defendant's tax liabilities, if any, or to any pending or prospective forfeiture or other civil or administrative proceedings.

XII. IMMIGRATION STATUS

The defendant recognizes that pleading guilty may have consequences with respect to the defendant's immigration status if the defendant is not a citizen of the United States. Under federal law, a broad range of crimes are removable offenses, including the offense(s) to which the defendant is pleading guilty. The defendant's guilty plea and conviction make it practically inevitable and a virtual certainty that the defendant will be removed or deported from the United States if the defendant is not a citizen of the United States. Removal and other immigration consequences are the subject of a separate proceeding, however; and the defendant understands that no one, including her attorney or the district court, can predict to a certainty the effect of her conviction on her immigration status. Understanding all of this, the defendant nevertheless affirms that the defendant wants to plead guilty regardless of any immigration consequences that plea may entail, even if the consequence is automatic removal from the United States.

XIII. DEFENDANT'S ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I have read and understand the provisions of this plea agreement consisting of fifteen (15) pages. I have discussed the case and my constitutional and other rights with my lawyer. I am satisfied with my lawyer's representation in this case. I understand that by pleading guilty, I will be waiving and giving up my right to continue to plead not guilty, to a trial by jury, to the assistance of counsel at that trial, to confront, cross-examine, or compel the attendance of witnesses, to present evidence on my behalf, to maintain my privilege against self-incrimination, and to the presumption of innocence. I agree to enter my plea as indicated above on the terms and conditions set forth herein.

NO PROMISES OR REPRESENTATIONS OTHER THAN THOSE IN THE AGREEMENT HAVE BEEN MADE TO ME BY THE PROSECUTOR, OR BY ANYONE ELSE, NOR HAVE ANY THREATS BEEN MADE OR FORCE USED TO INDUCE ME TO PLEAD GUILTY.

I further state that I have not had any drugs, medication, or alcohol within the past 48 hours except as stated here:

None

I understand that this plea agreement will take effect and will be binding as to the Parties only after all necessary signatures have been affixed hereto.

I have personally and voluntarily placed my initials on every page of this plea agreement and have signed the signature line below to indicate that I have read, understand, and approve all the provisions of this plea agreement, both individually and as a total binding agreement.
